And here repose a plies.

al clergy, en be conwould so il position, ergy than stand that

t as one of

ppens that but rather therwise. t still insist ed to them, ne, so that esent at any vision being me that the that intent. at a certain

, which was grieved, and a generous (as I think you. I also ake an equi-Rectory and nown a little ition becomnem.

ing his office, instead of rendering him dependent on the courtesy of the Rector. I am very sorry that in these respects our correspondence has failed.

Yours very faithfully,

A. MONTREAL.

I regret that you decline to "tend the meeting of the Chapter which I have called. I should not have pressed you to do so against your inclination, but I think you will see that you were hardly right in your refusal.