
CONTENTS.

CHAP. I.

PAGE.

Mutual Regard between Great Britain and her Colonies. Character of the Colonies at the end of the Year 1763. Taxes laid on Goods imported into the Colonies. Opposed by the Americans. The Stamp Act framed. Disturbances in different Colonies. First Congress held in New York. Disturbances still continued. Stamp Act repealed. A Bill for New Taxes passed in Britain, and sent to America. Occasions new Discontents. Tea destroyed at Boston. Boston Port Bill. Received with extravagant Tokens of Resentment by the Bostonians. Congress meets at Philadelphia. General Gage fortifies Boston Neck. A great Army assembles before Boston, and prepares for War..... 6

CHAP. II.

Skirmish at Lexington. Battle of Bunker's Hill. Washington appointed Commander in Chief of the American Army. Sketch of his Life. His Birth and Education. Appointed Adjutant General of the Virginia Militia. Defeated by the French. Aid-de-Camp to General Braddock. Covers the Retreat of the British Army. Appointed Commander of the Provincial Troops in Virginia. Marries. Settles at Mount Vernon. Appointed a Magistrate, a Member of the Assembly, and a Judge of the Court of Virginia. 26