

CONTENTS OF VOL. II.

---

LETTER XXIX.

Revivals.—Explanation of the term.—Philosophy of the Subject.—
Expectation excited.—Circumstances favourable and Effort proportionate.—Means employed.—Preaching.—Visitations.—
Special Prayer-meetings.—Conferences.—Great Effects produced and accounted for.—Revival in the Presbytery of Geneva . . . . . PAGE 9

LETTER XXX.

Subject continued.—Revivals open to objection and abuse.—
Effect of New Measures.—Protracted Meetings.—Anxious Seat.—Evils likely to arise.—Instances adduced.—Letter from Dr. Beecher . . . . . 29

LETTER XXXI.

Subject continued.—Evils attendant on approved Revivals.—How qualified.—Importance of a wise Superintendence.—Fruit of Revivals.—Whether to be expected and desired in our own country.—Special Circumstances demand special Means . 42

LETTER XXXII.

Religious Opinions.—Recent Differences.—Act and Testimony.
—Review of the Subject . . . . . 50

LETTER XXXIII.

Religious Denominations. — Presbyterians. — Congregationalists.
—Unitarians.—Progress of Truth in Boston.—The Standing Order.—Half-way Covenant . . . . . 60

LETTER XXXIV.

Subject continued.—Baptists.—Methodists.—Episcopalians.—
Dutth Reformed.—German Settlers.—Romanism.—Infidelity . . . . . 71