

CONTENTS

iii

PAGE

Preparations for the Winter—Attempted Extortion by the Indian Chief—Exploring the Country—Pelican Lake—An Indian's Prayer—Cost of Living in the Seventies—Paraffin at £1 a gallon, etc.—An Important Visitor—"Star Blanket" States his Needs—A Suitable Location at Last Discovered—Sandy Lake.

CHAPTER V

SETTLING AT SANDY LAKE - - - - - 84

Cooking a Christmas Pudding without Raisins or Currants—The Move to Sandy Lake—First Attempts at Farming—"Star Blanket" sends an Envoy—The First Crop—A Visit from the Bishop—The First C.M.S. Conference in the Saskatchewan—The Red Indian Forty Years ago—Habits and Manner of living—Clothing—Tents—Food—Religious Beliefs—The Dog Feast—Burial of the Dead—The Happy Hunting Ground—Medicine—Smallpox—An Indian Mother's Prayer.

CHAPTER VI

THE CREE LANGUAGE, CUSTOMS, ETC. - - - - - 112

No Word for "Thank You" in Cree—Length of Cree Words—Grammar—Mode of Reckoning Time—Indian Names—Polygamy—Courtship—A Pretty Story—Scalping—Origin of the Name Qu'appelle—The Indian and his Mother-in-law—Hunting the Buffalo—Fear of Darkness.