C.N.R. PARTY AT WINNIPEG NOW

Mayor Waugh Gives Visiting M.P.'s and Senators Welcome.

MANY SPEECHES MADE

West Should Be Visited Every Two Years by Each Parliamentarian.

For overseas service, as also was Glen Campbell, ex-M.P. for Dauphin.

Chairman Deacon, in welcoming the party, declared that the business men of Winnipeg were delighted to witness the opening of a new transcontinental railway system. They believed that there was plenty of business for the Canadian Northern Railway, which was already doing a great work in binding the east and west closer together. Mayor Waugh said he would have liked to have tendered a formal service reception, as he had anticipated the city's welcome to Sir William Mackenzie and party.

Mr. Bennett, M.P. for East Simcoe, who responded on behalf of the house of commons to the toast of senate and parliament of Canada, referring to his namesake, the M.P. for Calgary, said that he did not want to be mistaken for the other fellow, as he had anticipated the government in its policy of guaranteeing the bonds of the Canadian Northern Railway. He knew that it was an enterprise bound to make good. He was glad that so many members of the senate and house had come upon this trip, because they could see for themselves what a magnificent system was being inaugurated. The railways of the country might have been built a little rapidly, but they would all be needed.

After the war, he declared, there would be a great rush of immigration. Speaking for himself, Mr. Bennett said he would welcome the teeming millions of Europe. Not only would he welcome British and Belgians, but immigrants from Germany as well, who come here in good faith to enjoy the blessing of freedom and justice under the American flag. (Cheers.)

He said the United States had sent more men to the front than the eastern provinces and they had also subscribed more generously to the patriotic fund. Manitoba had given the patriotic fund $1.43 per head of population, while no other province had given as much as $1 per head.

The eastern provinces were surprised to find pleasant and almost sultry weather in Winnipeg today. They left for the west at 6 o'clock tonight and will be in Regina for a short visit tomorrow.

SECRET ALLIED BUYING BOARD

MEETINGS IN LONDON

Exchange Situation Upset by Russia's Disregard of Committee.

treasury in allowing to the other allied nations the amounts advanced by Great Britain to them for the purchase of war supplies in this country. Each country is financed to a certain extent in the case of Russia, almost wholly by Great Britain. The British members of the committee advise the representatives of other nations that they must not expect to be paid for their supplies in this country, and how the money shall be spent.

Cause of Exchange Disarray.

The only time the committee's plan of operation was about six months ago, and the effects of the exchange rate have not yet been eradicated. This was in connection with purchases by Russia in the United States.

Russia has been notified by the British members of the committee that she might spend a certain sum of money for war supplies in this country. The sum was not disclosed yesterday, but it is believed that it was between $250,000,000 and $300,000,000.

Whether the allotment was fully understood by the Russian Government is not known, but what Russia did was to spend the sum allotted and, in addition, make huge commitments in this country for further supplies. These commitments, covering many months, were said to run into the hundreds of millions of dollars—a sum in excess of the amount allotted her by the British Government.

Russia's Failure to Consult.

In making these contracts, apparently, Russia failed to consult the committee. When the contracts came due, in part, Russia had insufficient funds to meet them and the committee, not having authorized the making of the contracts, had to devise quickly some method of paying the bills. This was extremely difficult and the demoralization of the foreign exchange markets in this country recently was attributed in no small measure to this cause.

Since that time, Russia had adhered strictly to the wishes of the committee. In return, Great Britain is paying her bills only these bills, but those of Italy and more recently, France, are being paid today by Great Britain.

Handled by Morgan.

A single financial house—J. P. Morgan & Co.—acts as the disbursing agency of the government in this country. Its disbursements are understood to cover payments of all goods purchased for the allies here. Great Britain keeps a record of the amounts which her allies draw against her and separate transactions between the British Government and those of the other allies provide for a settling of the score among the allies.

The $500,000,000 Anglo-French credit loan, just negotiated, is said, will pay for a large quantity of goods purchased here for Russia. The goods have been or will be shipped to Russia, but the bill will go to England. Some experts estimate that as much as half of the loan, or $250,000,000 may be used in paying for supplies for Russia, chiefly for supplies for which she contracted without the knowledge of the international committee.

How She Acquired "Feminine Charm"

A nicely dressed woman sat beside me in the train. Everyone stared at her. It was not her beauty of feature that held our eyes, nor her costume. But there was something about her face and expression that made us stare. You might think me a little over the top, but you know your own complexions so dazzlingly pure? Don't think me impertinent, but you seem over 30, yet haven't a line in your face, and your cheeks are quite peach-like. How do you do it?

Laughing, she said: "That's easy. I remove my skin. That's all. I don't use any make-up. I use a face bath made by dissolving powdered sallote (one ounce) in one-half pint of water. I wash my face with this twice a day. I use a face cream, which I call 'tonic' the skin wonderfully. Very simple, isn't it? I thought so. I'm now trying her plan and like it immensely. —Millicent Brown in The Story Teller.
