CONQUEROR OF LIEGE

General Otto Von Emmich was 66 years old. He was a lieutenant in the Franco-Prussian war and was afterwards gradually advanced in rank, tho he showed no conspicuous ability until the present war began.

At the outbreak of the war he was placed in command of the German army of the Meuse for the invasion of Belgium. Von Emmich issued a amous appeal to the Belgians after rossing the German border, imploring them to remain peaceful and declaring that civilians would be unharmed if they did not participate in the fight-
