CANADA, MY LAND . . . . .	5
There may be more enchanting climes
FORWARD, CANADA! . . . . .	7
Northland of our birth and rearing
CANADIAN-BORN . . . . .	8
Although I'm not unduly proud
KNOW'ST THOU THE LAND? . . . . .	11
Know'st thou the land where the pious and bold
O MAPLE LEAF! . . . . .	15
Thee best of leaves I love
DOMINION DAY . . . . .	17
Where the purple-vestured mountains
CANADA'S EIGHTEEN . . . . .	19
At Paardeberg they fell
DOMINION DAY, 1900 . . . . .	21
Rejoice, O Canada, rejoice
O CANADA, MON PAYS, MES AMOURS . . . . .	22
O Canada, my country and my love
SOL CANADIEN, TERRE CHERIE . . . . .	23
O soil Canadian, cherished earth
MY OWN CANADIAN GIRL . . . . .	25
The demoiselles of sunny France
THE ST. LAWRENCE . . . . .	27
Though like Ulysses, fam'd of old
ST. LAWRENCE AND THE COMING SHIPS . . . . .	29
I cannot loiter on my way
