

Mr. JOHN F. NORRIS, of the Herald, also spoke in reply to the toast, after which

The CHAIRMAN gave the "Next Merry Meeting," and

Rev. A. J. BRAY proposed the health of the Chairman, with a vote of thanks for the admirable manner in which he had presided and carried out the programme.

The gathering then dispersed.

A
e l
of
r
n
e
of
et,
3;
ed,
nd
ry
ich
one
uld
ade

The
ugh-
ence

been

that would
Ho