THE principal object of this little work is the dissemination of information in regard to the CANADIAN POSTAL SERVICE. It is published with the kind permission of the Postmaster General, and it is hoped will be useful to the public as well as conducive to the interests of the Post Office.

The short and imperfect sketch of the progress of the post office in Canada, which has been compiled from authentic sources, will be found interesting. It extends over a period of one hundred years, and serves to mark a rapidity of improvement which, in a country purely agricultural, has seldom been surpassed.

As the regulations of the post office are subject to constant change, it is proposed to issue new editions of the CANADIAN POSTAL GUIDE, revised and corrected to the latest date, half-yearly, or yearly, as circumstances may appear to require.
