

- Maine, Population of, 533; increase of same, 535; Aboriginal tribes of, 536, early settlers of, 538; law against liquor traffic, 541; not settled through religious impulses, 545; Legislature of, 590; politics of, 590; Governors of, 590, 591, 596; temperature and climate of, 597; area, 597; water power, 597; forest products of, 598; fish and game of, 599; agriculture, of, 599, 571; fisheries of, 571; ship building of, 572; quarries of, 573; manufactures of, 574; labor, 575; railroads of, 576-78; pleasure travel in, 578, 579.
- Manufactures, 574, 575.
- Massachusetts, introduces orderly government, 538; purchases the territory of Gorges' heirs, 539; Puritans of, 547; theocracy of, 547; schools introduced by, 553.
- Meeting house, Building of, 548, 549.
- Minister of the town, 548; Rev. James Hooper elected, 549; Parson Church, 552.
- Ministerial tax, Movement to abolish, 549-51; act of 1800, 550; of 1811, 551; tax abolished by constitution of Maine, 1820, 552.
- Newspapers, 550-58.
- Order, The standing, 547, 550, 551, 552.
- Parties, Political, 590, 591.
- Penobscot tribe, Number of, 537.
- Plaisted, Gen. Harris M., elected Governor by plurality vote, 596.
- Pleasure travel, 578.
- Powers, division of legislative, executive and judicial, 560.
- Press, Newspaper, 550, 558.
- Prohibition of liquor traffic, origin of, 541; declared constitutional, 541; first law signed by Gov. Hubbard, 542; evasions and amendments of, 542; repealed, 544; re-enacted 1858, 544; effects of the law during thirty years, 544, 545.
- Puritans set up schools and churches, 547; their clergy, 547.
- Quarries, 573.
- Railroads, 576-78.
- Riot, anti-liquor law in Portland, 542.
- Robbins, John, shot in Portland riot; verdict of coronor's jury on shooting of, 544; killing of made part of capital, 544.
- Schools, introduced by Massachusetts, 553; early taught by masters, 553; theological, 554; district system of, 554; normal, 555; free high, 555; houses, 555; supervision of, 555; compulsory attendance at, 556; parochial, 556.
- Shipbuilding, 572.
- Swedish Immigration, 534.
- Temperance reform, 540; organization of, 541.
- Temperature of Maine, 597.
- Waldo, Samuel, introduces German colony, 533, 546.
- Washingtonian movement, 540.
- Water power of Maine, 567.