War Spirit Shows in Kentucky Derby Names

Louisville, Ky., March 25.—The war spirit and the war influence are very strongly marked in the naming of horses that have been entered in the two and three-year-old stakes to be decided at Churchill Downs this spring. This applies more particularly to the Kentucky Derby.

Quite apart from the fact that some of the names would naturally suggest themselves, it is evident such names as Viva America, Flags or American Eagle would probably not have been chosen in a day of profound peace.

What may be called the atmosphere of the day is evidenced all the way down the list. War Cloud, War God, Hand Grenade, Extremist, are undoubtedly products of the day, and especially the latter, which is the abbreviation by which Kitchener of Khartoum was popularly known.
