THE A. B. C. STRENGTH.

THERE is any disposition to make light of the assistance which Brazil and her sister republics, Argentina and Chile, could render the Allies, so far as adding to their military and naval strength is concerned, a survey of the manpower of these three countries may serve to alter this idea.

In Brazil, whose sympathies have long been with the Allies, and whose population is largely of Portuguese origin and, therefore, naturally inclined to follow Portugal's lead, the army has a total war strength of 550,000 men and the navy contains 15,300 seasoned sailor-warriors.

Brazil's navy is not to be despised. She has two modern battleships carrying 12-inch guns, two old battleships, 13 protected cruisers, and twenty-seven other fighting vessels, including three submarines.

Chile, which has announced her intention of remaining neutral if possible, is not an unprepared country, since she can call 100,000 able-bodied men to the colors on short notice and has, ready for action, 100,000 men almost equal in numbers of units to Brazil's, with about 8,000 men.

Argentina, although having a large and influential German colony, is not unfavorable to the Allies, and is quite powerful. This republic has an "active" or first-line army of 60,000 men, and reserves sufficient to bring her war strength up to 415,000, all having had a fairly rigorous training.

What a galaxy of emblems, all floating and nailed to the staff of liberty are the ensigns of these sixteen countries, great and small:

- BRITAIN, FRANCE, RUSSIA, BELGIUM, STATES, ITALY, JAPAN, SERBIA, CHINA, MONTENEGRO, RUMANIA, PORTUGAL, CUBA, BRAZIL, PANAMA, SAN MARINA, GERMANY, AUSTRIA, TURKEY, BULGARIA.

EDITORIAL NOTES. British guns played a wonderful tune on the wires of "The Harp."

EDITORIAL NOTES. Hindenburg is about ready for an offensive, if only the Allies would stop theirs and give him a chance.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Chile officials say the Government will remain neutral if possible. Presumably it will be difficult to get Chile really hot with anger.

EDITORIAL NOTES. The Russian authorities have an effective way of preventing their generals suffering defeat twice; they fire them after the first time.

EDITORIAL NOTES. If German interests want Mexico to war on the United States they should try to bring peace between Villa and Carranza. Then the Mexicans, who must have some one to fight, might turn on the Americans.

EDITORIAL NOTES. That precocious Ottawa citizen who balked at planting potatoes in his flat backyard, because the directions said to plant in hills, needs a thorough homestead education. He would probably be disappointed because the plants failed to bear the potatoes aloft in the manner of tomatoes.

EDITORIAL NOTES. The word Hohenzollern seems to mean, by its derivation in German, high tolls or taxes. Certainly the toll of German manhood and money runs high these days.

A VIRGINIA GIRL

Gained 15 Pounds by Taking Vinol.

Norfolk, Va.—I suffered from nervousness, had no appetite and was very thin. Nothing I took seemed to help me until one day a friend told me about Vinol. I have now taken six bottles and have gained fifteen pounds; have a good appetite and can eat anything.
