Why is it that whenever you are looking for anything you always find it in the last place you look? The reason is because you always stop looking when you find it.

A LITTLE boy was asked about the story of Joseph and if he knew what wrong his brethren did in disposing of him, when he replied: "I suppose they sold him too cheap."

"I NEVER can enjoy poetry when I'm cooking," said an old lady who dropped in on a neighbor recently. "But when I step out to feed the pigs and h'ist myself on the fence, and throw my soul into a few lines of 'Wait Till the Clouds Roll By,' it does seem as if this airth was made to live on, after all."

A SCOTCHMAN'S definition: "When the folks wha listen dinna ken the meaning o' what they hear, and when the mon who speaks dinna ken what he means his ain sel'—that's meetafissicks."

A CERTAIN doctor of divinity said every blade of grass was a sermon. The next day he was amusing himself by clipping his lawn, when a parishioner said, "That's right, doctor—cut your sermons short."

"My dear," said her lover, "I am fired with an ambition to win your hand. May I consult your father?" "Yes," she softly murmured. An hour later he was again "fired," but it was not with an ambition to win her hand this time. There was more foot than hand about it.
