

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION.

The merits of private instruction are not ignored, but this system requires no explanation here. The student preferring to do so may take private lessons, and secure all the free advantages previously mentioned.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1. All term bills are payable strictly in advance, at the beginning of each quarter, for the whole term. (There can be no exception to this rule.)
2. Students receive a card on payment of their bills, admitting them to a given course of lessons, and no person will be allowed to receive instruction until such card has been procured.
3. No deductions will be made for temporary absence from lessons, or for lessons discontinued. In case of protracted illness (of several weeks' duration) exception may be made to this rule, provided that prompt and explicit notification shall have been made to the Director.
4. Students may obtain all music which they require at the office of the Conservatory, where it will be supplied at a discount, and must be paid for on purchasing.
5. Visitors will not be permitted in the class rooms during lesson hours without permission from the Director.
6. All matters of business connected with the Conservatory, including tuition, changes of hours, or changes from one class to another, must be arranged with the Director, not with the teachers.
