Many Contract For Sales of Large Holdings at This Figure

, 28 Ger-11—2 11-2 CARIBOU, Me., Oct. 28—The Aroostook potato market appears to have settled to a fixed price of $3.75 to $4 a barrel. Many growers have contracted for sales of large holdings contracted for sales of large holdings around these prices. Some are selling small lots for ready money and still others are in no hurry to sell, being comfortably off for cash just now and expecting a higher price later in the season. The crop is practically all housed, of excellent quality and a good yield. Shipments continue just about large enough to keep the demand sup-

Traffic Resumed on Railway; Workers Are Out on Highways

HOPEWELL HILL Oct. 28-Traffic on the Albert branch railway, which was suspended for two days on account of washouts on the line, has been restored, the train which had not been back to the Albert end of the road ince Monday morning, arriving tonight. A wrecking train from Moncton assisted in clearing the track. Reports today state that the highway in the Memel district was very badly damaged by the freshet, the roadway being torn out in several places and two small bridges carried away. A crew of men were sent there today by the road commissioner here.

In most sections of the county affected by the freshet conditions are fairly
