

MINNEDOSA HAS TOUGH VOYAGE; SINN WITH LIST

Captain and Staff Win
The Praise of the Passengers

HEY NUMBER 334

algy Man Brings Word of Improvement in Conditions
In England

The Canadian Pacific liner Minnedosa, 14,000 tons, in charge of Commander A. H. Nottley, R. D. R. N. R., on Antwerp, Jan. 1, Southampton to Cherbourg, Jan. 2, arrived in port yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and sailed at 11 o'clock. The ship encountered very rough weather during the voyage which had a devastating effect on the physical well-being of many of the passengers, but particularly among those traveling third.

Hugh Wall of Water.

Standing on the promenade deck one could see a high wall of water rushing towards the ship, and the sea was so rough that the passengers were obliged to lie down. It seemed as though the ship would be swamped but it never happened. The passengers gave great credit to Commander Nottley and his staff for the able way in which they kept the ship through a voyage which one man said, was the worst he experienced in 10 times across the Atlantic.

334 Passengers.

The Minnedosa brought a total of 334 passengers, 65 in the cabin and 269 in the steerage. The majority of the steerage passengers were from the United States, but a large number of Canadians were also on board. The ship was loaded with mail and parcels.

English Conditions.

Not only was there a feeling in England, among all classes, that 1924 was a year of good business and industry would take on new lease of life, but the change for the better was already noticeable and dusty was at the present moment. The ship was loaded with mail and parcels.

Better Known.

Canada was better known in England than it had ever been before, and the ship was loaded with mail and parcels.

Realize Existence Here.

The Canadian exhibit had another side, aside from introducing the ship to the rank and file of Englishmen, and that was that it had made a capital sit up and take notice of the possibilities of this land, said Stevens. During his visit he had had conferences with business men and had capital to invest and was anxious to learn all they could about the country, from one who had emigrated here from their own land and knew conditions as they existed.

OGERSVILLE PRIEST
ILL IN THE U. S.

NEWCASTLE, Jan. 11.—Friends of Father Rogersville, of Rogersville, regret to learn he is seriously ill in a hospital in Rochester, Mass.

HER NERVES SO BAD
SHE COULD NOT SLEEP

Mrs. Grace Kitchin, St. George, writes:—"After having a severe attack of pneumonia I was left in a weak and run down condition. My nerves were so bad I could not sleep at night. I am now more than able to do all my own housework as well as considerable outside work. I can recommend Milburn's H. & N. S. very highly for those suffering with nerves."

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

decided to try one box I felt a slight improvement. I have now taken five boxes, and I have gained 35 pounds in weight. I am now more than able to do all my own housework as well as considerable outside work. I can recommend Milburn's H. & N. S. very highly for those suffering with nerves."

A STRANGE MEETING.

LENINGRAD, Jan. 12.—Two men rushing for the same telephone booth in a hotel collided in the centre of the lobby. They recognized each other as cousins, each of noble Russian birth, who had not met since the World War.

PROHIBITION IN ONTARIO THEME

Rev. W. C. Millson, Social Service Worker, Speaks in St. John Churches.

Rev. W. C. Millson of the department of Social Service and Evangelism of the Methodist Church in Canada, was the preacher in Carleton Methodist church yesterday morning and in the afternoon he gave the address at the session of the Sunday school of Queen Square church. He leaves the city today to continue his tour in the Maritime Provinces but will return to St. John to attend the St. John District meeting which will be held in Centenary church on Jan. 22.

Rev. Dr. T. Albert Moore, head of the department of Social Service and Evangelism will also be in St. John for the district meeting.

Prohibition Vote.

In Centenary church last night Mr. Millson referred to the recent vote on prohibition taken in Ontario. He pointed out that in the sections where the law had been rigidly enforced prohibition had carried with a large majority but in the cities where there was lax enforcement the Liberty League succeeded in carrying the vote against prohibition. The rural sections had given the majority which sustained prohibition for the province. Mr. Millson said the result had shown that the enforcement of the act was its strongest commendation.

Home for Girls.

Speaking of the social service work of the church he made special mention of the orphanage being accomplished by the Maritime Home for Girls at Truro, very highly commending the superintendent, Miss Stroud. With a knowledge of all similar homes in Canada and the United States, he declared there was none with a more capable superintendent, and none more successfully managed. He spoke also of the church orphanage and then described the latest work undertaken, a farm where juvenile offenders are sent for a primary course of training.

DIGBY MINISTER

Rev. E. L. Munns Preached on Sunday in Main Street Baptist Church.

The services in the Main street Baptist church yesterday were conducted by Rev. E. Lawrence Munns of Digby, N. S. The pastor of the church, Rev. David Hutchinson who was in Ontario, and who resigns from his pastorate of the Main street church at the end of the year, preached a powerful sermon and large congregations both morning and evening heard his messages with close attention and appreciation. His evening sermon was based on the story of Moses and the text "When he had come to years of understanding." Mr. Munns said that everybody must give up something in order to get something. Moses had made that decision because it was right, because he realized that pleasure endured only for a season.

Huels assisted Mrs. Hoyt in serving the young people when they finished their outdoor sport and completed the evening with refreshments and games.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—A suit has been filed in the Supreme Court against Henry M. T. Beckman, a lawyer, by William F. Reilly for $252,500. The plaintiff, represented by the law firm of George W. Olvany, Tammany leader, alleges that on July 13, 1921, Beckman agreed to pay him half the fees received from a client introduced by Reilly.

MAINE SOCIETY LEADER IS SUED FOR HEART BALM

Mrs. Lyman Reynolds
Defendant In $100,-
000 Action

SAYS BLACKMAIL

Husband of Accused May Bring Suit Against First Wife
He Divorced

DOVER-FOXROCK, Me., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Lyman Reynolds of Sebec, formerly Miss Grace Lewis, a wealthy Sebec, Mass., society leader, has been sued for $100,000 for alienation of affections by Mr. Reynolds' first wife, Mrs. Katherine Reynolds of Cambridge, Mass. The writ was filed in the Middlesex County Court, Massachusetts by the attorney for the plaintiff.

The first that the defendant knew of the action being brought against her was when a press representative called Mr. Reynolds on the phone and he declared that it was "a straight case of blackmail and a holdup from start to finish."

Divorced First Wife.

Mr. Reynolds said to Sebec about three years ago, buying a good sized farm and putting the buildings in first class condition. After he had been in Sebec several months, he applied for a divorce in the Piscataquis County Court, but it was refused on the ground that he had not resided within the state of sufficient length of time to become a citizen.

At the next term of court, however, he obtained the divorce, and within a short time left for Massachusetts, returning in a few days a married man once more.

Mr. Reynolds has told many of his friends, it is said, that he first met his second wife—then Miss Lewis—while he was confined in a hospital, where she came to bring flowers to the sick. It is reported that the hospital acquaintance will figure in the proceedings brought by the first wife.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Bachache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water seals and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will soon act fine. The famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Carrier Pigeon Was Hero In War

PARIS, Jan. 12.—A hero of the war has died of old age at the age of 10 at Montreuil, north of Tours.

By name and description he was known as "Carrier Pigeon No. 18." He was a ring, equivalent to the Medaille Militaire, which was awarded to him after the following mention of his deeds had been made in despatches:—"On three different occasions, during the battle of Verdun, under heavy fire, ensured the rapid transport of very important messages. In particular, he ensured the communications of Major Raynal, defender of Fort Vaux, on June 3, 1916, at a time when his troops, who were surrounded, were deprived of any other means of communication." After the Armistice the pigeon was kept as an honored guest in the army barracks.

IS DEDICATED AT STONE CHURCH

Communion Rail Gate is Gift in Memory of William and Catherine Patton.

A gate for the communion rail in St. John's (Stone) church was dedicated at the morning service in the church yesterday by Rev. A. L. Fleming, rector. The gate, which is a very beautiful piece of art craft work and exactly matches the communion rail for which it is a continuation, was presented to the church in memory of William and Catherine Patton and was the gift of members of their family. The brief dedication service was most impressive.

St. John's church will celebrate its 100th anniversary this year and within the last few months the interior of the church has been greatly enriched by many memorial gifts which add to the beauty of the appearance of the edifice or are aids in lending dignity and reverence to the services.

Other Gifts.

Amongst the recent memorial gifts have been carillons added to the organ, a new rectory's stall, several stained glass windows, brass alms basins and a prayer stool as well as several memorial gifts which add to the beauty of the appearance of the edifice or are aids in lending dignity and reverence to the services.

GERMAN NOVELTY

Manufacture Note Books Out of Bank Notes Discarded in Berlin.

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—Quite the most original, and at the same time cheapest, present it is possible to buy in Berlin this year is the little note-book made of perfectly clean and unused one-hundred-million bank-notes from the worst months of Germany's inflation period, and priced at two and a half pfennigs—exactly one quarter of a cent.

It would appear as though the Reichsbank sold them in great bundles as waste paper to the rag merchants to be pulped, and that some enterprising firm bought them up with an eye to a seasonable novelty at the time of year when everybody renews old note-books.

CANT OPERATE

Metal Too Near to Brain of Fredericton Man, Injured in Fall.

FREDERICTON, Jan. 11.—Percy Rickard, of Barker's Point, is reported in a serious condition at Victoria Hospital. The man was the unfortunate victim of an unusual accident. While engaged several weeks ago in the construction of the new High School he fell from a gangway, wheeling a barrow of brick. He fell upon a plumber's heater, which was in operation. The molten lead penetrated his head and a portion of it remains there. An operation to remove it recently disclosed the mass so close to the brain that it was inadvisable to touch it.
