

MISS ROSS SENDS IN RESIGNATION

Police Matron Does Not Like Matter of Pay While on Leave.

After nine years of service as police matron and stenographer at police headquarters, Miss M. Christine Ross has resigned her position. Her resignation was to have taken effect today, but at the earnest request of the Chief of Police, Miss Ross has consented to remain on duty until the end of the month.

It is because of a matter of leave of absence that Miss Ross sent in her resignation. Her work is said to be of a very trying nature. She is liable to be called upon at any hour of the day or night on week-days and on Sundays and she has often very difficult cases to deal with. Her assistance has been so necessary to the chief department that in nine years she has only on one occasion previous to this year taken her two weeks' vacation all at once. She has taken a week at a time so that her work might be caught up with the more readily on her return. Last year she was away for only one week. As a result, this spring her health broke down and as she had not fully recovered from that illness she asked for two months' leave of absence. Two weeks of that time were due to her as vacation for this year and one week remained of her vacation period last year. The extra five weeks she asked for because she needed rest.

The Commissioner of Public Safety, Miss Ross says, undertook to bring the matter of salary before the City Council and she took the six weeks' vacation. On her return the Commissioner said that he would not be responsible for paying her salary during the extra five weeks. It was a matter of about $110, but Miss Ross felt that she was not being fairly treated in the matter and she sent in her resignation.

Miss Ross has given valuable assistance to the department and is thoroughly efficient and competent in her work. It would be exceedingly difficult to replace her, and she has the sincere regard and respect of every member of the force. Should she adhere to her intention of resigning she will be very greatly missed.

PRINCESSES WILL TRY AMERICA

Moscow, Aug. 29.—(By Mail.)—Russia soon will be poorer by 24 young women, for this is the number of brides who are, or soon will be, on their way to the United States with their American husbands, men who came out to Russia with the American Relief Administration. Many of the marriages were precipitated by the withdrawal of the ARA from the Russian field. Most of the brides speak English. With two or three exceptions they come from old and well known Russian families, reduced to meagre circumstances by the revolution, and have enjoyed exceptional educational advantages. They include two princesses and several countesses.
