Vets and Moncton To Play Here Tonight

The G. W. V. A. and Moncton will meet on St. Peter's Park tonight in the two I. League fixture and a good game is anticipated. The Moncton team, after their memorable fourteen-inning struggle against Quinlan last Saturday will appear here for the first time this season and should prove a big attraction. Dick Casey, who is playing first base for the team, has proven a tower of strength, and his hitting, playing and advice have done much to make the rally team formidable contenders for championship honors. The G. W. V. A. boys will be out in force and will endeavor to secure the victory. It was not known this morning who would be on the mound for either team.

Acadians to Visit Grand Pre

THE "Land of Evangeline" will become the scene of another celebration on August 9th. At a meeting of the Grand Pre Memorial Committee recently held at Moncton, arrangements were made for an excursion to Grand Pre on that day. Special trains will carry people from all points in Nova Scotia to the little town from whence the long suffering Acadians were deported by the English in 1755, and it is anticipated that people will join the excursion from all parts of the Dominion and the United States.

One of the features of the day's programme will be the unveiling, in the Memorial Chapel, of a statue of the Madonna, which will be erected in recognition of the noble work accomplished by the Acadian National Society. The statue, which is 1 1/2 feet high, rests on a six foot base, has great beauty of design, and is claimed to be the finest of its kind on the American Continent.

As conditions are not as bright as they might be financially in Acadia the interior of the Memorial Chapel will not be completed this year but a committee has been formed to collect Acadian relics and souvenirs, and to obtain, if possible, further works of art that the interior of this institution be in keeping with the statue. While the exterior of the chapel is plain it is the intention of the committee to have the interior as elaborate as possible. It will not be used for church purposes but as a museum and white and tinted marble with mosaic flooring will be used with artistic effect. Many will visit Grand Pre, not so much for their interest in Acadia, as because it is the setting of Longfellow's story of the deportation. Evangeline is honored in immortal stone and large numbers have journeyed, particularly from America, to lay their tributes on the statue which is a monument not only to the heroic Acadian maid, but to the great poet whose writings she once inspired.

Acadians to Visit Grand Pre

THE "Land of Evangeline" will become the scene of another celebration on August 9th. At a meeting of the Grand Pre Memorial Committee recently held at Moncton, arrangements were made for an excursion to Grand Pre on that day. Special trains will carry people from all points in Nova Scotia to the little town from whence the long suffering Acadians were deported by the English in 1755, and it is anticipated that people will join the excursion from all parts of the Dominion and the United States.

One of the features of the day's programme will be the unveiling, in the Memorial Chapel, of a statue of the Madonna, which will be erected in recognition of the noble work accomplished by the Acadian National Society. The statue, which is 1 1/2 feet high, rests on a six foot base, has great beauty of design, and is claimed to be the finest of its kind on the American Continent.

As conditions are not as bright as they might be financially in Acadia the interior of the Memorial Chapel will not be completed this year but a committee has been formed to collect Acadian relics and souvenirs, and to obtain, if possible, further works of art that the interior of this institution be in keeping with the statue. While the exterior of the chapel is plain it is the intention of the committee to have the interior as elaborate as possible. It will not be used for church purposes but as a museum and white and tinted marble with mosaic flooring will be used with artistic effect. Many will visit Grand Pre, not so much for their interest in Acadia, as because it is the setting of Longfellow's story of the deportation. Evangeline is honored in immortal stone and large numbers have journeyed, particularly from America, to lay their tributes on the statue which is a monument not only to the heroic Acadian maid, but to the great poet whose writings she once inspired.
