Appeal to the World for Aid is Smuggled Out of Russia to England.

London, April 15—A Morning Post dispatch from Helsingfors says: "The following appeal to 'all those who have not lost their humanity and the image of God in their hearts' has been privately received from Moscow. Its authors beg that it may be published in the foreign press. It runs as follows: 'A hundred thousands educated Russian citizens are rotting alive in the concentration camps of Russia. Their life is continual torture and suffering. The greater part of them are women and children. 'Of what are they accused? Nothing. They are hostages till the end of civil war. They are flesh for the modern Caligulas and Nerons. The past year of war, massacre and bloody revolution have made humanity cruel. No words can soften it. But does not the death of poor, innocent children on a scale unknown in history since Herod's slaughter of babies really touch one heart in Europe or America? Americans endeavor to feed poor children in countries ruined by the war and at the same time here, close by, tens of thousands of children in heartrending condition are languishing under threat of torture for crimes of which they are innocent. 'Once there were people like Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Beecher Stowe. Once liberty-loving Americans fought for the liberation of negroes. Is it long since the English and French prevented the Turks by force from massacring Armenians and Greeks? Is

It long since the Russians saved the Bulgars from Turkish cruelty and saved Montenegrins and Serbs? What has happened to humanity? Is it possible that wheels of history are rolling back to the terrors of the Middle Ages?"
The collegiate institute and public schools of Moose Jaw, Sask., were reopened yesterday morning after a five days' strike on the part of the teaching staff. An agreement between the teachers and the school board was reached whereby teachers' alliance will be recognised by the board and treated with when difficulties arise. No increase in pay was asked for and none granted.

Blood-Cleansing, Appetite-Making Strength-Giving

Are the Effects You Naturally Want from Your Spring Medicine? And Hood's Sarsaparilla satisfies these needs as nothing else can. This marvellous restorative tonic and blood purifier has been recognized for nearly fifty years as the best spring medicine for restoring the blood and circulation to their natural richness and vitality. Hood's Sarsaparilla is more than food, because it creates an appetite and promotes assimilation of all food taken, thus securing 100 per cent. of nourishment. Thus it contributes to make rich red blood, which carries vitality to all parts of the body and gives the strength and nerve force that nature demands day by day. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, small dose after each meal, and you will soon note how much refreshed you are, how good your food tastes, and how cheerfully you do your work. Hood's Pills relieve headache, biliousness, constipation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
PURIFIES, VITALIZES AND ENRICHES THE BLOOD.
