MILLIONS OF TONS OF COPPER AND BRASS SCRAPS LEFT AFTER THE WAR

In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for the week ended March 13, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment:

Reductions are expected in several lines of raw material entering into manufacturing costs, and among these steel is expected to lead the way before long. There is a desire on the part of the mills to get as close as possible to the point where buyers will confidently come into the market, knowing that they are safe in making extensive purchases. The only danger is that the reduction may not be made in such a manner as to preclude the danger of a price-cutting cam-

Goods delivered to all parts of the City, Carleton and Fairville. Scrap metal dealers have little to do these days, hence their chief indoor pastime is battering down the prices at which they will consider buying any material. One of the largest yards in the dominion stated that during last week they did not make a single sale, the first time this has happened in a business experience of more than thirty years. The future depends largely on the action of the governments of United States and Canada in dealing with the large surplus stocks of copper and brass

The Talk on Bread

Most people in buying bread want the largest loaf in the store. You make a mistake, for When a loaf of bread raises o high, it i sover-proof. The ife of the wheat has gone. Buy the medium sized loaf and get full strength of the wheat. One slice is worth more than a whole loaf of over-proof.

Letter Proves It.

West Philadelphia, Pa.—"During the thirty years I have been married, I have been in bad health and had several attacks of nervous prostration until it seemed as if the organs in my whole body were worn out. I was finally persuaded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I my housework and advise all ailing women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will guarantee they will derive great benefit from it." Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald, 25 N. 41st Street, West Philadelphia, Pa.

There are thousands of women everywhere in Mrs. Fitzgerald's condition, suffering from nervousness, backache, headaches, and other symptoms of a functional derangement. It was a grateful spirit for health restored which led her to write this letter so that other women may benefit from her experience and find health as she has done.

For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their (0 years experience is at your service.)
