A FATAL DROWNING accident occurred at Gardner's creek, a mile above Fredericton, on Sunday last by which a young man named Beverley Fitzmaurice lost his life. With Mr. Boies the unfortunate fellow went in bathing. He got entangled in the eel grass and before Boies could get to his assistance he was drowned.

A peculiar feature in the fish market is the remarkable rise in mackerel. It is conclusion that there are to be only a few mackerel caught this season, hence the higher prices that are being paid for them.
