JAMES LUTON.

Tailor and Draper.

WOULD invite the attention of his friends and customers to his present Stock of Goods, which has been completed by recent arrivals per ship John Dunlop, Middleton, and Corcoran, consisting of West of England CLOTHS, FINE BLENDED, VELVET CLOTHS, FINEST WEAVES, WAISTS and EXTRA FINE CLOTHS; WAIST COATINGS, in Berlin, Silk and Velvets, TROUSERS in endless variety—these goods he can recommend as being superior to any yet seen in this Market, and in making them up no care shall be spared to sustain the preference he has hitherto received.

To the Owners of H. H. Army, J. L. would beg to state that having been for years employed in the Customs Department of H. H. Army's Military Tailors, 20 Pall Mall, he is prepared to execute in a superior style all orders which may be entrusted. St. John, Oct. 31, 1856.

A MEDICAL REVOLUTION!

THE WORLD UNARMED.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

THE GREAT CURATIVE REMEDY.

The virus of disease often makes its way to the internal organs through the pores of the skin. This penetrating Ointment, reaching under the skin as it is rubbed in, is absorbed through the same channels, and reaching the seat of inflammation, promptly and invariably subdues it, whether located in the bowels, the liver, the lungs, or any other important organ. It penetrates the surface to the interior, through the countless pores that communicate with the skin as summer rain passes into the fevered earth diffusing its cool and regenerating influence.

SKIN DISEASES & GLANDULAR SWELLINGS.

Every species of external irritation is quickly reduced by the anti-inflammatory action of this Ointment. Angry Eruptions, such as SCALD HEAD, ECZEMA, TETTER, RINGWORM, SCALD HEAD, NETTLE RASH, SCURF, (or Itch) &c., do not return no more under its application. It is equally efficacious in all cases of the venereal virus, its infallibility in diseases of the skin, the muscles, the joints and the glands.

ULCERS, SORES, AND TUMORS.

The effect of this wonderful external remedy upon Scalds, and other violent sores and ulcers, is almost miraculous. It first discharges the poison which produces suppuration and purges itself, and thus the cure which its healing properties afford is complete as well as permanent. WOUNDS, BRUISES, HEMORRHOIDS, AND SCALDS.

In cases of the fracture of the bones, injuries caused by steam explosions, Burns, Scalds, Rashes, &c., the use of this Ointment, and contraction of the sinews, it is employed as a powerful recommedation by the faculty. The marvelous remedy has been introduced by its inventor in person into all the leading Hospitals of Europe, and no private household should be without it.

FAMINE ABOARD SHIP.

When I was a lad, I was a long time aboard a ship that sailed with a cargo of hides and—owner and captain, Abraham Thompson, to Calcutta and other places round the Horn. We had with us a sailor named Richard Thornbury, and he was a great friend to me. Everybody liked, and had a sort of respect for him. We used to say that if he had cared to be a sailor, or even a captain, he might have been one long before. Old Abraham, our captain, would talk with him now and then, and when he never would with us; but Thornbury was a stout man, and not often cheerful. I believe I may say he had more liking for me, although a boy compared with him, than he had for any one else in the ship.
