McLaw.—At Cumberland Point, Queens Co., N. B. Sept. 4, of consumption, Archiald B. McLean, aged of years, leaving a widow, two brothers and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Our brother's illness was long and tedious but borne with Christian resignation. When 18 years of age found the statement to the Saviour, and was baptized and welcomed into the fellowship of the First Grand Lake Baptist church by Rev. G. W. Springer, in which he walked till the Master called hin home. His end was peace.

Bats.—At Pueblo, Colorado, Aug. 18, 1894, Joseph. P. Bain, aged 47. For some wenty years he had been brawely struggling with disease. In the antumn of 1892 he went West, is the hope that his health might improve. For a little he seemed to be gaining, but the disease was so firmly rooted that restoration was impossible. Though deprived of the presence of his home friends, he had the Saviour with him to the end. He was master of himself, affectionate and brave, faithful to his family and to the church. He leaves a sorrowing widow, an aged of the great of the saviour with him to the end. He was master of himself, affectionate and brave, faithful to his family and to the church. He leaves a sorrowing widow, an aged other, and a large circle of other relatives and friends to mounts. Harry was the third son of Marg. M. A. Archibald, and the late Rev. S. J. Archibald. The call was sudden, but the dear boy died rejoicing in the merits of Jesus Christ,
