"SNOWY" BAKER, GREAT REFEREE; BRITISH KNOWS BOXING AND MEN, TOO FOOTBALL RESULTS

(By Tom S. Andrews.)

The arguments over the Langford-McVey battle at Sydney, Australia, in which McVey was returned the winner by R. L. "Snowy" Baker, has caused many to inquire what sort of a man Baker is.

Baker gave the fight to Langford, and Tommy Burns, who seemed to be pulling for Langford, declared the decision unfair, as did some sporting writers, especially the critic of the Sydney Referee.

This recalls to me Eugene Corrie's decision, when Langford and McVey fought in Paris last April. Corrie called it a draw. I saw the fight and thought Langford had a shole, but had to admit later that Corrie's decision was correct, as McVey jabbed Langford and did the more damage, although Langford as times worked havoc on McVey's body.

No doubt this gave McVey courage in Australia, he profited by experience and Baker's decision was as near correct as could possibly have been given.

Baker has a splendid reputation. I watched him frequently in Australia and never saw him make a mistake, save once. This was in the Clabby-Dave Smith fight. I thought Clabby held Smith for more than half the distance and should have a draw.

In a previous battle between John Thompson and Tim Land, Baker got into an argument with Clabby. Thompson was unable to see with his left eye after the seventh and Clabby kept telling Baker that Land had something on his gloves.

Baker investigated and found nothing, but it developed later that Land's seconds shifted the bottles before the investigation.

The argument was so warm, that when Thompson knocked out Land, Clabby jumped into the ring and they clashed. Baker struck Clabby. Friends separated them and the next day Clabby went to Baker and shook hands.

On another occasion, Clabby was boxing Bob Bryant and Baker's quick thinking prevented a catastrophe. He jumped between the men as Clabby started a punch that probably would have been a knockout. Bryant was in bad shape and a knockout might have been fatal, but he afterward died, following a collapse in the ring.

Baker is a good referee and an athlete. He won an amateur tournament in England and took honors as an all-around performer and swimmer. He teaches physical culture in England and is held in esteem by sporting business men.

WRAY HAS ELEVEN CREWS.

Boston, March 30.—Coach Jim Wray has started in early to find the right men to strike the Crimson crews in their race this spring. The few days that the crews have been on the river, Chalmers, the English boy, has been setting the pace in the varsity shell, but when the garsmen went out yesterday Chalmers was displaced by Edward Eger, who has been stroking the second varsity eight for some time. Chalmers going in at Eger's old place.

There is no telling how permanent the shift will be, but Eger no doubt will be given a thorough trout before any definite choice is made. The new stroke shows a little more dash in his work than Chalmers has done, getting his oar into the water at the catch with more precision and vigor, and finishing with a bit more snap. He also rows a smooth stroke, so that the men behind him can pick it up easily.

Balch has sustained a slight injury to his knee again and is out of the boat for a few days. His place at bow was taken yesterday by Gregg Higgins, a varsity oarsman of last spring, but now a member of Pomfret, having finished his college course in three years.

Yesterday's work for all the crews was light, the practice consisting of a short paddle upstream above the Stillman Infirmary and back in easy stretches. Four varsity eights and seven freshmen crews were on the river, so that Coach Wray was kept busy.

Athletics
THE TIMES

Both Hans Holmer and Bouchard, the French champion, in distance races since the latter won his notable victory in the Powderhill Marathon. Bouchard defeated the Finn 60 yards in an hour race recently. He ran 10 miles in 52 minutes, 4 3/4 seconds, while the distance covered in one hour was 16 kilometers, 43 yards, which does not approach the amateur or professional records.

Bartow S. Weeks, chairman of the transportation committee of the American Olympic Committee, has sent out a notice of interest to those who contemplate going to the games in Stockholm. On and after April 10, the general public will be given an opportunity to secure transportation on the steamship Finland. The rates for 46 days, going and returning on the Finland are $400 and upward. Passengers will live on board the ship during the stay at Stockholm, so there will be no worry about hotel accommodations. This rate includes the admission into the Stadium.

Now this may interest you: "Applications from members of the Olympic Committee and families, friends of athletes and contributors to the Olympic fund will be given preference if received on or before April 10." Mr. Weeks' address is 2 Rector street, New York.

It was America and England that had the fuss in the last Olympic games in London in 1908. Now it looks as if France and England would have the big row in the coming Swedish contests. Johnny Bull wants to protest the entry of Jean Bouin in the long distance contests, on the grounds of this amateur having competed against the professional Bouchard. As Bouin, however, had the permission of the French Athletic Union, and as the proceeds of the contest were to be devoted to charity, it hardly appears as if England had a leg to kick. At any rate it will be interesting to see how the Swedes will pass on the Britisher's protest and if Bouin is declared ineligible, one cannot blame France for withdrawing from the Olympic.

Billy Eaton, one of the fastest little men that ever pulled on a running pump, was credited with running 40 yards in 4 1/2 seconds. A wonderful performance! Now comes a westerner named Torrey, from the University of Wisconsin, who claims he covered 40 yards in 4 1/2 seconds. Nothing is said about the kind of watches that timed Torrey, or who the officials were. But it will take a lot of believing that an athlete was able to accomplish such a performance.

The New TOOKE Lock Buttonhole makes the "VICEROY" the perfect closed-front collar.

About the Boxers.
Paul Kohler and Eddie Murphy are to clash again in Cleveland April 15. "K. O." Brown and Young Erne have been matched to box in New York April 19. Bill McKinnon and Bill Hurley have been signed for the main bout at Albany tonight.

Digger Stanley, the champion bantam of England, has been matched to box Ledoux, the champion of France, in London April 22. Ledoux is said to be a second Carpenter.

The young bloods of Hungary have gone crazy over the boxing game, and Bobby Dobbs, the colored boxer, who is now an instructor at a club in Budapest, has more pupils than he can attend to. The rapid strides that the Frenchmen have made in the sport is the cause of the Hungarians' keen interest in it. Some of the boxers of Hungary have shown such development that they now want to meet the English boxers. There was a time when the English boxers were feared, but they have deteriorated so much that even the boxers of the countries where the sport is new do not fear them.

KILBANE SARCASTIC.
Cleveland, O., Mar. 30.—Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion, received an offer today from Los Angeles for a 20 round bout between himself and McGorry and one for the light-weight championship July 24. Kilbane replied that he would accept the offer if Volgaist would not demand all the money.

GOOD BOXER NOW BEGGAR.
New York, N. Y., Mar. 30.—Albert Quinn, a New York boxer, who once was rated as a first class pugilist, when arraigned in the men's court before Magistrate Appleb, said a charge there seeking alms at the corner of 42nd and Broadway, said:

"Your honor, I once had all kinds of money, and I spent it, too, right on the corner where the officer arrested me; and now I am down and out."

The magistrate noticed Griffin's poor condition and told him he thought three months in the workhouse would help to put him on his feet.

FAIL TO AGREE AS TO WEIGHT.
San Francisco, Cal., Mar. 30.—A disagreement over weight may prevent McGorry and Frank Kilans from meeting at Daly City April 13, in what virtually would be a middleweight championship fight. Kilbane blocked the proceedings by declaring that McGorry must make 158 pounds two hours before the fight. McGorry wired James Colford yesterday he would agree to make 155 pounds six hours before the going and would make no other concessions. Colford said today there was little hope of bringing the men together.

MALDEN BAN ON BOXING.
Malden, Mass., Mar. 30.—Because other than members have, it is charged, been allowed to attend boxing bouts of two local athletic clubs, both organizations were this afternoon warned by the police to discontinue their exhibitions. This puts an end to boxing in this city for the present at least.

More than 300 persons, who were not members, it is alleged, have been admitted to the exhibitions of the Commercial A. C. and Malden Social and Physical Culture Association. The former had bouts announced for tonight.

In accomplishing this feat Goulding made several new intermediate records. He was walking against a relay of four opponents, each of whom walked a mile. He beat them, and all the judges agreed that his walking was perfectly fair, heel and toe work.

WORLD'S AMATEUR RECORD BOATS FILLED

New York, Mar. 30.—George H. Goulding of the Central Track and Field team of Toronto, established a new world's amateur walking record for four miles indoors, at the 23rd Regiment Armory tonight. The track was eight laps to the mile and Goulding covered the four miles in 28 minutes 40 1/2 seconds, smashing the old mark of 29 minutes 40 1/2 made by T. H. Armstrong 25 years ago.

In accomplishing this feat Goulding made several new intermediate records. He was walking against a relay of four opponents, each of whom walked a mile. He beat them, and all the judges agreed that his walking was perfectly fair, heel and toe work.

PROMINENT PLAYERS ARE TRANSFERRED

Chicago, Mar. 30.—Jack Pfeister, who a few years ago was known as "Jack the Giant Killer," because of his effectiveness, as a pitcher for the Chicago Nationals, is coming back to the Chicago Nationals. Jimmy Nagle, a left handed pitcher and some other players, were given to Louisville for Pfeister today. Pfeister was released to Louisville last year, but he played only a few games.

ONE reason why the French girls blouse are preferred to those made by the manufacturer of this country is that they are so much more attractive. Seams are always "trunched" to give them a soft, feminine look. The shirt and the blouse are also done in by hand. The shirt and the blouse are also done in by hand.
