One of the ways to keep a town looking well and likely to evoke complimentary references from visitors is to keep the streets clean of rubbish or other impediments, cut the weeds on vacant lots and back streets and burn the refuse. A few people of tasteful habits and industrious methods cannot accomplish this, but the enforcement of law on non-compliers and encouraging those who take pride in natural or acquired beauty will do much to aid it. One unkept boulevard or general untidiness will do more harm in killing out a spirit of improvement than folks have any idea of. One law should apply to all and those who are slow to act should be gently prodded by a hint or two.

So long as people on the farms and in the small towns continue to send their money to the mail order firms to enrich the big cities, just so long will the young men and women continue to follow. The steady drain of trade from the home towns has much to do with the constant drain of population from the rural sections.

The most for your money is to be had at

You'd be surprised

How much of the drudgery of wash day is eliminated by the use of a

NEW CENTURY ELECTRIC WASHER.

It washes so perfectly that the old washboard is a mere ornament. The motor, a General Electric waterproof type, is the best money can buy. Why not order one now, and turn wash day into play day.

Electric Irons and Toasters also in stock.

A COMPARISON

St. Thomas Times-Journal:—A correspondent of the Times-Journal, in a letter in today's issue, points out that, while a man must serve years of apprenticeship before he is permitted to drive a locomotive, and must undergo repeated tests to show that he is fit to continue as such, anyone, without examination as to fitness, is allowed to operate an automobile. The comparison is a timely one. The rapid increase in the number of automobile accidents shows the necessity of protecting the public against the incompetent and careless automobile driver.

"Say," said the irate visitor, "you had something about me in your paper that has gotta be corrected." "If the item was wrong," the editor replied smoothly, "we shall cheerfully do as you request." "I told one of your reporters I saw a beautiful gold-finch perched on a twig just outside of my bedroom." "Well," "And when the item came out in the paper it read 'goldfish'." "That isn't so bad." "Oh, isn't it, though? Well, ever since it was in the paper friends of mine have been hanging around our house thinking I had a private supply of something to drink in my cellar."

for James Yourex, 1919. Moved by Denning and Blain that old shingles from hall be sold to H. Nevins for $3.

Moved by Hawken and Denning that township rate for 1920 be 6 mills on the dollar.

Dan Leitch, $17.68, shingles and nails for hall. Township and county rate for 1920 is 12.35 mills on the dollar.

Council adjourned to October 4th at 1 p.m.

Harry Thompson, Clerk.

Why His Jaw Dropped
"There isn't much I don't know about the English language," boasted the long-haired man in the club. "I'll test you." "I'll test you," replied a friend. "I'll dictate a paragraph to you." With an assured air the boaster seized his pencil, but his jaw dropped as he heard the following: "As Hugh Hughes was hewing a yule log from a yew tree, a man dressed in clothes of a dark hue came up to Hugh and said, 'Have you seen my ewes?' 'If you will wait until I hew this yew tree, I will go with you anywhere in Europe to look,' said Hugh."

Examples For Other Boys to Follow

In the public life of Canada and of the United States, the farm or the printing office often, if not generally, has the call. Prime Minister Neighen was born on the farm and spent his youth and early manhood plowing, hoeing, and peddling milk, and on the other side of the line, whether Republicans or Democrats win, the next president will be a man who began life as a printer's devil, and worked his way up to the editorial chair. Moral for the boys: If you can't be a farmer, make your start in a printing office.—Orilla Packet.

Camouflaging

"Hiram," said the farmer's wife, "what makes you say 'By gosh' so much and go round with a straw in your mouth?" "I'm getting ready for them summer boarders that's comin' next week. If some of us don't talk an 'act' that way they'll think we ain't country folks at all."
