

XXVII. Any Peace Officer, Municipal Officer, and any person other than the informer shall be a competent witness. Who may be witness.

XXVIII. One half of the fine levied in pursuance of this Act shall belong to the prosecutor, and the other half to the Municipality within which the place in which the offence shall have been committed is situate. Fines how disposed of.

XXIX. Any person found guilty of one or more of the offences mentioned in this Act shall, besides the fine and imprisonment, be condemned to the payment of costs, and shall be imprisoned in the Gaol of the District in which the offence shall have been committed until payment of the fine and costs. Imprisonment in certain cases.

XXX. Any person who shall deem himself aggrieved by any conviction pronounced in virtue of this Act, may appeal to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions, which may be held not less than six days after the day of conviction in the District, County or place in which the cause of complaint shall have arisen; provided that such person shall give to the party complaining, notice in writing of the said appeal within three days after the conviction, and shall enter into recognizances with two good and sufficient sureties, before a Justice of the Peace, to appear in person at the said Sessions, and to prosecute the said Appeal and submit to the Judgment of the Court thereupon: and to pay such costs as may be fixed by the Court, and upon such notice and recognizances being given and entered into, the Justice of the Peace who shall have received such recognizances shall release the person if he or she be under arrest, and the Court at such Sessions shall hear and decide upon the reasons of appeal and shall give such order thereupon to the two parties with or without costs as it shall deem proper; and in case of the dismissal of the appeal and of the confirmation of the conviction, the Court shall order that the delinquent be punished in accordance with the conviction and that he do pay such costs as shall be adjudged; and shall if necessary, issue an order for the execution of the said Judgment. Appeal allowed to persons aggrieved, upon giving security.

XXXI. It shall be the special duty of every peace officer and every Municipal officer to attend to the execution of this Act, and to prosecute every offence committed against the provisions thereof, but this provision shall not extend, nevertheless to, exclude any other person from the right of bringing a complaint for such offence. Municipal officers to attend to execution of this Act.

XXXII. Every Justice of the Peace who shall neglect or refuse to hear or determine any complaint brought before him by virtue of this Act, or who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty required of him by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanour, and upon conviction thereof, in any Court having competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by fine not exceeding , and such conviction shall in all cases carry with it forfeiture of his office. Justices of the Peace neglecting to hear complaints.

XXXIII. Every offence against this Act shall be prescribed at the expiration of six calendar months to be computed from the day on which it shall have been committed. Prescription of offences against this Act.

XXXIV. The Interpretation Act shall apply to this Act. Interpretation Act.