

Qualification of Jurors.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Commissioner or Commissioners, shall not enter in the said lists of Jurors, the name of any person whose real estate is not to the best of the knowledge and belief of such Commissioner, of the yearly value of                      Currency, over and above every ground rent, (charge réelle) with which such real estate may be charged.

Oath to be made by Commissioners before a Justice of the Peace.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that before proceeding to make the said lists of Jurors for the said respective Circles (arrondissemens) the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall make oath before any two Justices of the Peace (which oath such Justices of the Peace are hereby authorized to administer) to make such lists and to enter therein, faithfully and correctly, and without partiality or favor, and to the best of their knowledge and belief, all the persons qualified to serve as Jurors within such Circle (arrondissement) respectively.

Certificate of such oath to be annexed to the list of Jurors.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Justices of the Peace before whom the oath required by the foregoing section shall have been made, shall give a certificate thereof, which it shall be the duty of the said Commissioner or Commissioners to annex to the list which they shall make of such Jurors, and which the said Commissioner or Commissioners shall deposit in the manner herein after prescribed by this Act.

List of Jurors to be entered in a Register.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the list of Jurors in each Circle (arrondissement) shall be entered in a register in which the names of the Jurors shall follow each other in alphabetical order, without interruption, and the said lists once made and deposited as hereinafter set forth, shall not be changed or altered in any manner, except at the time and in the manner herein after prescribed.

Christian names to be entered in the list of Jurors.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Commissioner or Commissioners in making the said lists, shall enter the Christian names after the Surnames of each of the said Jurors, as also the Professions, Trade or Craft, and the place of abode (domicile) of each of them:
