

Allison Read entertained

Many friends and relatives entertained for Miss Allison Read before her wedding last Saturday at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church to Robert Ormerod.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Read, Hurontario St. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ormerod, Lancashire, England. The bride is a graduate in nursing of Victoria Hospital, London.

Mrs. Doris Bertram, Applewood Acres, gave a pots and pans shower. Miss Bonnie Aiken, maid of honor, gave a miscellaneous shower, and the staff of Toronto Western Hospital where the bride is a nurse, gave a surprise kitchen shower.

Mrs. Clare Greer entertained at a dessert party when the bride was presented with a swag lamp from neighbors and friends. Ladies at St. D'Andrew's Presbyterian Church gave two showers, one a cup and saucer and the other miscellaneous.

Mrs. Arthur Babcock, Carliss Place, gave a dessert luncheon and miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Read, mother of the bride, entertained at an open house to introduce the groom and his mother, here from England to attend the wedding, to their relatives, friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Carman Read, aunt of the bride, entertained at a dinner party for relatives and close friends at her home in Markland Wood.

The bride's brother, Paul, played the organ at the wedding and her younger brother, Jimmy, was an usher.

The reception for 100 guests was at the Valhalla Inn. Following a wedding trip to Montreal, the newlyweds will live in Hamilton.
