#5 I.T.S.	27th April/44 (Cont'd)		calibre of drill. Boxing and wrestling matches were held in the Station Drill Hall. The contestants were well matched, and an exceptionally large personnel turned out to witness the event. The Commanding Officer took this opportunity to bid the airmen farewell and to express his appreciation for the co-operation which he had received from all Ranks while stationed at this School. The prizes were presented by S/L Fortune who will assume Command of this School effective 28th April, 1944. Course 99 with a high average C.T. score set a very good average in final examinations. There were no failures for only one airman ceased training on the course because of a change in medical category. The only difficulty experienced by this course was with Navigation which was partially due to the high standard of marking which was introduced with course 97.
	28th April/44		The Commanding Officer's pennant was awarded to No. 1 Squadron who ^{aw} massed a total of 49 points in drill, sports, and general efficiency.
	29th April/44		The audit of the non-public funds account was completed this date. The Red, White and Blue Stage Show from Toronto entertained the Station Personnel in the auditorium which was enthusiastically received by the airmen.
	30th April/44		At the end of the first week of the Victory Loan Campaign $32, 100 has been invested in Victory Bonds by the station personnel which is 80% of our quota. C.1818 Wing Commander A.J. Snetsinger, ED, Commanding Officer of this Station posted effective today, reporting 1st May to A.F.H.Q. as Camp Commandant.
