

hope, I have every reason to believe, that it would be confirmed by the Government as other Grants, or Sales they made, have been.

Mr. Pierris and families services, I have always heard spoken of in a flattering manner, but not having been on the Niagara Frontier during the late War, I can only speak from the report as to his services, and particularly of his being at the head of the Six Nations, or Mohawks, who were in the action against the American forces under the Command of a Colonel Boettler, where Captains De Charm and Determeine, with three or four Subalterns and about three hundred Indians from this Province, shared in the capture of that body of the Enemy, and for which they were promised, and afterwards received head, and prize Money, or Presents, in lieu of them but in other Notice was taken of them, as stated, for that gallant Action, nor of several others in which they were the Principals, if not the sole Conquerors, of which they have not failed to make their remarks.

Mr. Le Clair has been informed of His Graces Pleasure, with respect to his
