

150242

520 Bay Street, Toronto,
November 2, 1958.

Hon. A. C. Hardy,
Brockville, Ont.

My dear Arthur:

Thanks very sincerely for your good words on the introduction to Sir Robert Borden's Memoirs.

I found the book intensely interesting myself. Sir Robert had no very distinctive style, but, nevertheless, the average Canadian can hardly read the book without gaining a lot of information.

I am wondering if we are going to meet this year. There is a difference of opinion on that point.

Very kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

AM/E.

MEIGHEN PAPERS, Series 6 (M.G. 26, I, Volume 227)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA