

Must we not, in all fairness, think of the unfortunate few and ask what must be done for them.

Kung asks that he be given a chance to prove himself a soldier - a good soldier - so once we must believe he was.

On Feb. 6², 1941, Kung volunteered for active service overseas - he arrived in this country in July of that year.

To-day, once again, Kung volunteers - for service in the Far Eastern Theater of war, in any capacity.

Give this man a chance - place him in a Regt. and I am confident that you will have made a good soldier - and hope
