

CONTENTS.

9

The application of the facts of the case. — 5. Who sent Archbishop Parker? Who gave him the faith, — the faith of the one Catholic Church. — 6. The application of the facts to myself 152.

CHAPTER XVII.

REASONS WHY SEPARATION FROM THE CHAIR OF ST. PETER MUST BE FATAL TO THE ANGLICAN, AND HENCE TO THE AMERICAN, EPISCOPAL CLAIMS.

1. Reflections on the Act of Separation by parliament. — 2. Which claim of jurisdiction over the Church, that of the King or the Pope, must likely, by the rules of common sense, to be well founded? — 3. The necessity of a head to the body considered. — 4. The fact of the Pope's present Supremacy considered. — 5. The testimony of heretics to the Supremacy, either directly or indirectly. — 6. A gradual growth of the Papal power not tenable. — 7. The Scriptural argument for the Primacy of St. Peter. — 8. The Catholic interpretation of St. John i. 35, and St. Matt. xxi. 18, abundantly sustained by the Fathers. — 9. The authority of St. Peter touching the Faith set forth in St. John xxi. 15-17, as interpreted by the Fathers. — 10. The Scriptural argument applied to myself 158

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE PRIMACY OF ST. PETER INTERWOVEN IN THE FAITH AND DISCIPLINE OF THE PRIMITIVE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

1. The primitive Church affords just such testimony to the claims of St. Peter as the circumstances call for. — 2. The Apostolic See, according to the Fathers, the centre of Catholic unity, the keeper of the Catholic Faith, and the source of Catholic authority. — 3. Extraordinary assertion of Dr. Wordsworth in his book "Theophilus Anglicanus." — 4. Shown to be utterly without foundation in every particular 179

CHAPTER XIX.

THE APPLICATION OF THE FACTS IN THE TWO PRECEDING CHAPTERS TO MY OWN CASE.

1. The extraordinary assertion of Blackstone in reference to the Anglo-Saxon Church shown to be false. — 2. The Anglo-Saxon Church Catholic, and submissive to the Holy See of Rome. — 3. The case of St. Augustine considered. — 4. The document which puts a speech into the mouth of Dinoh against the Supremacy shown to be spurious. — 5. The application of the argument for the Supremacy. — 6. The sum of the whole matter. — 7. A confession and a warning conclusion 215