About Our Hats

We always endeavor to make your Hat to please you.

First we offer you an assortment to select from which comprises everything in Millinery.

Then our trimmers make up the materials into a stylish and attractive hat that becomes you.

And possibly the most pleasure comes from our prices, they are always lowest, quality considered of course. If you leave your winter hat to us you will get just the hat you want at the price you wish to pay.

About Choosing Furs

A safe store must have more than honesty, it must have knowledge too. If you find after a few months that you were deceived in a fur, it is poor comfort to know that the dealer was deceived too—for you pay for his ignorance.

Our long experience makes our guarantee of some value.

Fur Collarettes

Young Men's ...SUITS...

Parents shouldn't think that because we have been talking the style of our young men's clothes so much that we've overlooked that all important feature—wear, we haven't, we're just as particular about that as we are with the styles. The same high standard of make exists in young men's as in our men's clothing and we back up the wear with our guarantee so there's not the slightest chance for dissatisfaction to creep in. Every one of our

$7.50, $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00 Suits

are made from—fabrics, smooth and rough faced, all of tasteful character and ones that appeal to young men.

In every particular the styles of the garments are up-to-date—we are very careful to have our makers put in every hint of fashion. They are just the kind the young men of today want—that's why we expect them.

TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Bulk and separate tenders will be received by the T. H. Taylor Co., Ltd., until Oct. 21st, inst., for the several works required in building a flour mill and elevator. The lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

Plans and specifications and other information can be obtained at the office of the above named company.

Time for opening tenders has been extended until Thursday 24, inst.

Four applications from other business colleges for teachers, in our record for last week. We cannot supply the demand on our school for such help.

We do not place 300 students in positions in one year; neither does any other Canadian College. No ONE Canadian College ever prepared 300 students for office work in one year. These are facts that cannot be contradicted.

We stake our reputation upon EDUCATIONAL RESULTS and will refund the money to any student who is not satisfied with the instruction given in our school, after a trial of one month.

Now is the best time to enter.

OLD PASTOR WELCOMED

Large and Interested Congregations Greet Rev. Mr. Baker at Park St. Church.

Excellent Music Received Special Commendation—Two Splendid Addresses—Large Collection.

"Most successful anniversary in the history of the church," was the enthusiastic comment of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Hannon, at the close of last evening's service. Good sermons, splendid music, large collections, crowded congregations and rapid attention and interest were characteristics which called for the comment.

The anniversary services of Park street Methodist church were held yesterday, with Rev. E. N. Baker, of Stratford, in the pulpit. Mr. Baker will be remembered as a former and highly esteemed pastor of the Methodist church here. He is possessed of a very sonorous voice, which impresses his meaning forcefully and well. At the morning service the reverend gentleman took his text from First Corinthians, twelfth chapter and thirty-first verse, it being: "But covet earnestly the best gifts." During his discourse he drew attention to the fact that it is said by some that the Bible contradicts itself, such as in one place it says: "Thou shalt not covet," etc., and in the text "Covet earnestly thy best gifts," but that there is no contradiction in that nor in any other words of the Bible, and that they all vanish before the truth. In continuing he advised the people to covet such things as the truths of God—wisdom, revelation, patience, humility, endurance, etc. He also advised the people not to be too anxious about Heaven and the crown of life, but seek the fitness, the character and the faith and they should have the crown of life. Mr. Baker closed with the impressive words of the text, "Covet earnestly the best gifts."

The singing at the morning service was excellent and appropriate. It was as follows:

Anthem—"Come unto me," Miss Mide taking the obligato.

Solo—Miss Humphrey, "Contrite Heart."

Anthem—"Then fear not, O Israel," Miss Mide, Mrs. Bogart and Clarence Terry taking the solos.

Mr. Baker preached at the evening service again and took his text from eighth chapter of Romans and second verse, which reads: "For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." The sermon of the text was impressive by the speaker in a very able manner and the very large congregation were kept at attention throughout the discourse. The singing by the choir in the evening was highly meritorious and worthy of praise and was much appreciated by all present. The duet of Miss Mide and Robert Knight, "Love Divine," was very appropriate. The singing in the evening was:

Opening anthem—"Now God be with us."

Anthem—"By Babylon's Wave," obligato by C. Terry.

Duet—"Miss Mide and Mr. Knight, 'Love Divine'."

Anthem—"O sing to God," with obligato by Miss Mide.

Rev. Mr. Baker took occasion at the evening service to remark that while the music was excellent in the past, it was now better than ever. He paid the choir many warm compliments.

The tea meeting of to-night was announced and that Mr. Baker will be present.

DEWET DEAD

Boer Prisoners Declare That he is—Report Contradicted by Field Cornet.

Durban, Natal, Oct. 19.—General De Wet's recent inactivity has produced the impression among military men that he is either dead or incapacitated through illness or wounds.

According to a letter from Pretoria, a prominent Boer recently wrote a friend there relating the terrible hardships suffered by the Boers in the field, especially from a lack of surgeons.

"De Wet, for example," wrote this Boer, "suffered the most terrible agony before he died. He was wounded in the shoulder by a splinter from a shell, and the wound gangrened owing to its being dressed with dirty rags." Five Boers captured at different places recently said De Wet was dead, but each gave a different version of his death.

Against these reports is the statement of Piet De Vries, the field cornet recently taken prisoner in the north-western part of the Orange River Colony, who said that on the morning of his capture he took breakfast with Gen. De Wet.

The rates to the Pan-American exposition have taken a sudden drop, and W. E. Blain now announces via Grand Trunk and Wabash Rys, return tickets to Buffalo, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at $2.85 each, good to return six days from date. This liberal arrangement by the railways should induce a heavy travel to the exposition for the balance of the month.

APPEAL FOR FAMILY PEW

Rev. T. Beverley Smith Inaugurates his Pastorate with Impressive Address.

An Earnest Plea for Increased Consecration, Zeal for God's Word and Attendance at the Sanctuary.

The new pastor of Holy Trinity Church preached his initial sermon yesterday and made a most favorable impression. The Rev. Beverley Smith is a comparatively young man, but his discourse yesterday evidenced the fact that he was in earnest and determined to work as a faithful servant of his Master. His enunciation is clear and distinct, his voice is sympathetic and his delivery of the best.

His text was,—"And ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth."

From this text Rev. Mr. Smith delivered a very thoughtful discourse. He said: My Dear People,—and I rejoice to say that to-day,—When I began to think what I ought to say to you, my thoughts were directed to this text. From this verse arises three questions—First, what is the purpose of the church in the world? what is incumbent on the people of that church? and what is incumbent on her ministry?

In answer to the first question as to why God saw fit to establish the church in the world, it may be said that God did this for a definite purpose. It was to make Christ known. That Christ Jesus might be manifest to this world and God through Him. In answer to the second question as to what is incumbent on Christ's people, it may be said that the all essential thing is the consecration of our own hearts and souls to God. Let us be witnesses for Christ here. Let each one resolve to come whenever divine service is held. There is a very bad custom in vogue in some places and I am sorry to say that it is becoming more popular. It is the excuse that it is enough to attend church on Sunday. Is it enough for us poor weak sinners? Is one little hour on Sunday enough for God who gives us everything? Let us trust that this will not become our custom.

There is another thing that is unfortunately happening, and that is the degeneration of the good, old-fashioned family pew, where children and parents sit together. I am glad to see so many men here. It is becoming the custom for men to absent themselves from church.

Let us come to church every Sunday, and let us have the family pews. Let each one find for himself or herself some good to do. Do not wait for your new pastor to ask you. He is a stranger and will take some time to get acquainted. If you can sing, help in the Sunday school, or do anything, come forward. Don't hang back.

I thank the people who have been so kind in receiving me and I hope you will give me your assistance, as well. Let us try to look after strangers. Do tell your clergyman about those who have become indifferent as regards church attendance. Don't be afraid to tell me of cases of illness and I shall be deeply thankful. Let us each one try to do what we can. I do trust that the prayers of each and every one will go up for me that I may be kept and that I may be true to God. I do ask for prayers that I may be strengthened in my work. More things are wrought by prayer than the world dreams of.

We live in a parish, but we must not forget our diocese or the duty we owe our bishop, especially in our collections. We have, too, our great home mission fields and we have the foreign mission field.

Lastly, what is incumbent on the
