The Government last night augmented the garrison of the city with 2,500 cavalry and 1,000 infantry from Tsarkoe-Selo and filled the streets, especially in the disaffected equarters, with heavy patrols of solodiers. The refusal to permit a delegation of workmen to present a petition to the Emperor at Tsarkoe-Selomade it known that the great demonstration planned for Sunday, with, its unlimited possibilities for an outbreak will not be permitted to take place.

Will Offer Concessious. At the same time, acting in con-junction with a conference of em-ployers, it has been determined to ofter concessions in the terms, of em-ployment which the employers de-clared the great majority of the workmen would be inclined, to accept if they were guaranteed protec-tion from the more violent faction. Late last night it was reported that Father Gopon, the leader of the workmen, had been quietly spirited away from his hodyguard and taken into custody in furtherance. of the plan to disorganize the elements that are threatening the peace of the Even Expect Peace.

The authorities believe that by these steps they have the situation well in hand, and announce that they expect a peaceful solution of the problem. The situation had entered an acute stage yesterday and sika strike had assumed an open pothe strike had assumed an open po-litical phase. The day was one of intense excitement. Mill after mill and factory and factory closed. Throngs of workmen paraded the extrects, and when their colleagues refused to join them broke down gates and forced out the men. The whole industrial centre is idle. All the textile mills and every printing office in St. Petersburg are closed. Over 100,000 Men Out.

One electric light plant and One electric light plant and one water plant have shut down and over 100,000 men are out. Throughout she day workmen's meetings were held, at which incendiary speeches were remote, the wildest threats being mere made, the wildest threats being attered as to what would come if the authorities and employers failed to meet their demands. The general dread was increased by reports that the workmen of Moscow, Kieff, Kharkeff, Kishineff and other large cities in the interior might join in the mevement. inn Workers Petition to the Can in

The following is the text of the strikers petition to the Emperor:

"Sire,—We, workmen, inhabitants of St. Petersburg of all classes, our wives and children and indigent perents, come to you our sovereign, as a sing for protection. We are poor, persecuted, burdened by labor beyond our strength. We are insulted, treated not as men, but as slaves, who sught to bear their cruel fate in silence. We have suffered, but we are using plunged deeper in the mire and deprived of our rights. Uninstructed, wither by destitution and injustice, we are perishing. We have no estrength left.

"Sire, we have arrived at the extreme limits of endurance, we have creached the terrible moment when death is to be preferred to continuation of our intolerable sufferings. We have left our work and informed our employers that we will not resume until our demands are conceded. We have not asked much, we have left our work and informed our employers that we will not resume until our demands are conceded. We have hot asked much, we have left our work and informed our employers that we will not resume until our demands are conceded. We have left our work and informed our engloyers that we will not resume until our demands are conceded. We have left our work and informed our engloyers that we will not resume until our demands are conceded. We have been denied the right to put forward our claim, it teing held that such right is not secognized by law."

After referring to the eight hours day and other points of their case, the petitioners continue: "Any one of us who dared raise his voice in the interests of people of the warking classes, has been thrown into prison or transport. Kindness and good feeling have been treated as a crime. The bureaucracy has brought the country to the verge of ruin in a shameful way. It is luring it to its downfall. We have no voice in the heavy hurdens imposed; we do not know for whom or why this money is wrang from an impoverished people, and we do not know how it is expended. This state of things is contrary to divine laws, renders life impossible. It were better that we should all perish, we workers and all Russia. Then good luck to capitalists and exploiters and poor, corrupt officials, robbers of the Russian people.

Rescue them from intolerable official domination. Throw down the wall that separates; free thy people; order that they may rule the country with thee. Re Believes in the Latter, Ottawa, Jan. 21.—The fact that the Premiers of Canada and Ontario appeared last night on the same platform, drew one of the largest political gatherings ever held here.
The Russell Theatre was crowded with about 2,500, including many ladies, and then the doors were closed. Several hundred were turned away. The candidates, Messrs. May and McDougal, spoke briefly, after which Sir Wilfrid was called on.

Sooke AA AE Electer. London, Jan. 21.—The Balkan committee, of which Jas. Bryce is president, is memorializing President Roosevelt, by letter, urging American support of any action Great Britain may take tending to bring about more effective reforms in the Christian Provinces of Turkey.

The memorial refers to the President's remarks in his recent message to Congress regarding Turkey and Armenia, says that conditions in the Macedonian Provinces call for no Spoke As An Elector.

Sir Wilfrid was cheered to the echo. In fact he got an even greater ovation than Premier Ross, although the latter evoked considerable enthusiasm at different times in his speech. Sir Wilfrid said that as a citizen of Ottawa he was an elector of Ontario. As such he had certein duties to perform and in the performent in the performent in the performent of the content of the content of the content of the certein duties to perform and in the performent of the certein duties to perform and in the performent. of Ontario. As such he had certein duties to perform, and in the performance of them he was there to say a good word for G. W. Ross, who he said "had not been carried away from his moorings by the campaign of mud-slinging." Since Confederation, Sir Wilfrid said, the Conservatives have always the same kind of campaign, villification and abuse of Liberal leaders while in the active arena and eulogization after death. Mr. Ross, he said, was getting the same treatment now, but he hoped the people of Ontario would hoped the people of Ontario would pay no more attention to the cry this time than they had in the past. Believes Him Monest.

He believed Mr. Ross was an hon-tst man, and that it was not his fault that there had been ballot ir-regularities, but now that such have been brought to light it was his duty to reform them. In conclusion, Sir Wilfrid said he had read the press on both sides of politics, and had seen nothing to cause Liberals to transfer their allegiance. He would, he said, stard by his old friend, Hon. G. W. Ross, and would give him His vote on Gan. 25.

him his vote on Jan. 25.

Hon. George W. Ross was also given a great reception when he rose to speak. He dealt lightly with the charges of corruption, did not even mention Gamey, and made the plea that while the Liberals admitted there had been improper practices the other side, was as bad or worse. He defied the Conservatives to noise the other side was as bad or worse.

He defied the Conservatives to point any corruption directly traceable to the Government, and repeated the charge that the Conservatives are devoid of a policy.

Referring to the overtures for coa-lition made to J. P. Whitney by Hon. J. M. Mr. Gibson, he said; had been one of a number of Liberals who considered coalition advisable, and discussed the matter with Mr. Whitney without any authority from the Premier, or any obligation on his part, to abide by anything that might have been proposed. 'Forgive us our iniquity,' he said in conclusion, 'but don't forget in the hurdy-gurdy cry of corget in the hurdy-gurdy cry of cor-ruption that no man's castle has been attacked, no religion assailed, but that everywhere there was but one object, one motto, to build up Ontario."

The sketing carnival, under the auspices of the Non-Coms. of the 24th Regiment, at their rink on Tecumseh Park, last evening, proved a unique, brilliant, and altogether delightful affair.

The rink was prettily decorated and brightly lighted, and during the entire evening the Regimental Band discoursed excellent music. Long before the hour of commencement the rink was thronged with interested spectators and much interest was taken in the carnival.

There were over fifty costumed entries and the task that confronted the judges was a most intricate one. Lieut. Col. J. B. Rankin, Geo. S. Heyward and John Waddell were the judges, and amid the animated and enhancing, scenes it must have been a difficult took to make selections.
