

purchase of $50,459.32 4 per cent. debentures.

DAVISVILLE, ONT.—T. Houghton has purchased a lot on Balliol street on which to erect a residence.

RAT PORTAGE, ONT.—The Ontario government has appropriated $16,000 for a steel bridge here.

THORNHILL, ONT.—It is expected that the county council will build a steel bridge here at an early date.

MARIEVILLE, QUE.—G. Bombardier will receive offers up to June 1st for 44 debentures of $1,000 each.

OTTAWA EAST, ONT.—On June 9th the ratepayers will vote on a by-law to provide $10,000 for sewers.

CARBERRY, MAN.—The Lake Manitoba Quarry & Transportation Co. is about to commence operations.

BROCKVILLE, ONT.—It is understood that several citizens propose to take steps to build an opera house.

PICTOU, N. S.—Lea & Coffin, civil engineers, of Boston, have made a report on a sewerage system for this town.

SOUTH ZORRA, ONT.—James Anderson wants tenders by 23rd inst. for completion of the Timens Creek drain.

LYLETON, MAN.—Tenders will be received by Robert Murray up to June 1st for Presbyterian church to cost $3,000.

BAMBERG, ONT.—Henry Schlegel desires tenders by June 1st for erection of Evangelical Lutheran St. John's church.

AMHERSTBURG, ONT.—Henry Clay desires bids by 23rd inst. for $1,300 4½ per cent. 20-year debentures.

VICTORIA, B. C.—Hooper & Watkins, architects, have taken tenders on two-storey brick building for Rostein Bros.

MALLORYTOWN, ONT.—John F. Kelly desires tenders by 30th inst. for building a concrete sluiceway 19 feet long.

QUEBEC, ONT.—J. P. Ouellet, architect, is preparing plans for new presbytery in parish of St. Leandre, county of Matane.

GLACE BAY, N. S.—The town council will receive tenders up to June 1st for excavation and pipe-laying for sewerage system.

RENFREW, ONT.—Bids asked by W. B. Craig up to 26th inst. for alterations and additions to St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

KINGSTON, ONT.—The contemplated improvements to the Eastern Methodist church will cost upwards of $12,000.

WHITEBY, ONT.—R. E. Speakman, C. E., of Toronto, has prepared plans for waterworks and electric light systems for this town.

LORNEVILLE, ONT.—John A. Jackson will receive offers up to noon of June 4th for $2,000 4 per cent. 15-year debentures.

PORT ARTHUR, ONT.—The ratepayers have approved of the by-law to provide funds for a pumping system of waterworks.

CALGARY, N. W. T.—E. S. Harrison, of Winnipeg, has submitted a proposition to install an electric light and power plant here.

ALLISTON, ONT.—T. M. Brown, Robert Scott and others propose to form a company to build and operate a shoe factory here.

THORNBURY, ONT.—A by-law to assist in establishing a foundry and gasoline engine works here was carried on Monday last.

SYDNEY, N. S.—Alex. Matheson will receive tenders up to 30th inst. for brick and stone church for St. Andrew's congregation.

BATHURST, N. B.—L. A. Landry wants bids by 30th inst. on $5,000 county debentures.

NAPANEE, ONT.—J. E. Herring desires tenders by 23rd inst. for supplying the town with a steam road roller.

PARKHILL, ONT.—T. A. Maybury will receive tenders up to June 1st for construction of 20,000 square feet granolithic sidewalks.

INGERSOLL, ONT.—It has been decided to build an addition to the Charles street Methodist church. Particulars from E. W. Uren.

GUELPH, ONT.—It is said that the Page-Hersey Company will build a rolling mill in connection with their works here, to cost $275,000.

WINDSOR, ONT.—W. A. Sweet will receive tenders up to 26th inst. for erection of galleries in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

KINCARDINE, ONT.—Henry A. Gray, C. E., on behalf of the Dominion government, made surveys here recently for a breakwater.

THORNHILL, ONT.—It is expected that the County Council will commence the construction of a steel bridge at this place at an early date.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C.—The bridge across the Brunette river on the Port Moody and Aliceville Road will be replaced by a new structure.

OWEN SOUND, ONT.—William Robinson has assured the town council that he will build works here to manufacture narrow gauge railroad cars.

BARRIE, ONT.—A. J. Sarjeant wants bids by 25th inst. for Sunday School building for Collier street Methodist church, brick and stone, steam heating.

GLENBORO, MAN.—Tenders will be received by E. Frederickson up to June 3rd for addition to school, on plans by W. H. Shillinglaw, architect, Brandon.

OKAVILLE, ONT.—The Independent Order of Oddfellows have purchased property near here on which to build an Oddfellows' Home; estimated cost, $50,000.

HAWKESBURY, ONT.—Architects are invited to submit competitive plans by May 25th for eight room, two-storey and basement school building. Address F. C. Hersey.

WIARTON, ONT.—The town engineer has submitted a report on proposed sewer construction.—C. R. Sing, Government engineer, has made surveys for a proposed dock here.

AYLMER, ONT.—It is reported that the bonds of the London, Aylmer & North Shore Railway have been sold in New York and that construction work will be commenced immediately.

ORILLIA, ONT.—It is proposed that the town should purchase a stone crusher and a steam roller.—Bids wanted by C. E. Grant, town clerk, by 25th inst. for laying 50,000 feet granolithic walks.

SHERBROOKE, QUE.—The Canadian Rand drill Co. will build an addition of 100 feet to their factory.—Bids received by H. A. Odell up to 25th inst. for $35,000 thirty year 4 per cent. debentures.

NEEPAWA, MAN.—W. F. Young is taking tenders on a brick building for the Oddfellows. Plans by H. S. Griffiths, architect, Winnipeg.—H. S. Griffiths, architect, of Winnipeg, has prepared plans for a three-storey brick hospital building to be built here, cost $12,000.

ST. CATHARINES, ONT.—A. Youmans has been authorized to prepare plans for club house for the C. A. A. O., to cost $4,500.—The Y. M. C. A. contemplates the erection of a new building.

TORONTO JUNCTION, ONT.—Nathan Clark, of Orangeville, will build a large residence on Willoughby avenue near Dundas street.—Mr. Padgett is about to build a warehouse on Pacific avenue.—W. P. Hartney has plans out for four brick houses on King street.

NIAGARA FALLS SOUTH, ONT.—A by-law was carried last week to raise $4,000 for cement walks and improvements to electric plant. Arc lights on the streets will be replaced by incandescent lights.—George Russell, of Stamford, is about to build on Spring street.

ST. JOHN, N. B.—Mayor White will receive tenders up to 23rd inst. for erection of public library building. Plans at office of G. E. Fairweather, architect.—The C. P. R. will spend over $28,000 this summer in rebuilding grain conveyors and trestle work.—The trustees of the Fairville public school are taking steps towards the erection of a new building.

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, MAN.—Architect Peters, of the Manitoba Public Works Department, is preparing plans for new wing to the Home for Incurables at this place.—The Canadian Bank of Commerce has purchased a site here on which to build a fine bank building, to cost about $20,000.

STRATFORD, ONT.—A committee will report on building a new edifice for the Home Memorial congregation.—R. M. Ballantyne, of Montreal, has purchased property here on which to erect a three-storey brick building, 70x40 feet, for the Cardigan Overshoe Co. and the Ballantyne Dairy Supply Co. Plans of the new building have been prepared.

HAMILTON, ONT.—A parsonage will be built for Hannah street Methodist church.—Whitney & Small have decided to build a new theatre here, and have instructed Manager Loudon to take the preliminary steps.—The civic by-law to raise $100,000 to build a high level reservoir, improve the roadways, and extend Ferrie street was carried on Monday last.

LONDON, ONT.—James Fitzgerald is building a double brick dwelling on Maitland street.—Moore & Henry, architects, are calling for tenders for a Separate school to be erected on Hill street.—Herbert Mathews, architect, is preparing plans for store front for Thos. McCormick, Dundas street east.—H. C. McBride, architect, is preparing plans for alterations to residence on Dundas street.

SYDNEY MINES, N. S.—The Roman Catholic parishoners have decided to enlarge the convent school and build a new glebe. Particulars from Rev. C. F. McKinnon.—The town engineer has reported that the installation of a waterworks system would cost $77,005 and call for 55,000 feet of pipe. The work will be proceeded with.—Bids received by D. C. McDonald, town clerk, up to June 15th for $75,000 4½ per cent. 20-year debentures.

SAULT STE. MARIE, ONT.—H. R. Halton, architect, has in hand additions to the Separate school and alterations to the Curtis block.—Young & Wortman are preparing plans for a $4,000 residence on Wellington street.—W. J. Light will build a fine residence on Queen street east, and Mr. Halcombe will build on Kohler street.—Kocot & Shortt, of the Soo Falls Brewing Co., contemplate building a malt house of 40,000 bushels capacity.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Dalton & Eveleigh have prepared plans for a two-storey brick and stone building to be built by Edward Lewis just west of the C. P. R. Telegraph offices.—The time for receiving plans for the General Hospital build-