"The things that we fail to do are the greatest tests of our lives."

By neglecting to insure his life a man neglects to secure the only asset which his death would automatically convert into cash. The continuous instalment policy issued by the provides the Beneficiary, after insured's death, with an annual income for life. In securing such a contract, extending over a long period of years, care should be taken to obtain it from an institution of unquestionable stability. Five Million Dollars of Assets, together with the proportionately large net surplus, make the financial position of the North American unexcelled.
