SUMMER DEMANDS LESS FOOD THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Warm Weather Means You Can Replace Hot Soups, Thick Gravies, Heavy Sweets and Rich Pastries With Greens, Salads, Fish and Fruits.

Down Fuel.

It will be only a few days now before some one will be heard to complain of "that tired feeling" so inseparably connected with springtime. But why not try a little modern therapeutics and see if you cannot escape that tired feeling this year? The tired feeling comes from only one thing, and that is an overclogged system. To use the hackneyed but nevertheless illuminating comparison, the body may be likened to a steam heating plant which has been going at a pretty high pressure all winter, but now, when the weather becomes warmer, we must open the furnace door, shut down the drafts and keep the fire as low as possible if we do not want to be overheated. Similar ly we must cut down the fuel supply of the body with the approach of warm weather. It is foolish to keep on stoking our engines when the higher temperature about us does not require that the body work so hard to keep warm.

The only way to keep cool and thus not feel tired is by avoiding those foods which create heat or build tissue too generously. First of these are all the fats and then the starches or sweets. Let us therefore avoid the alluring doughnut, the elusive croquette, the pastry tray and the meats with rich gravies, for foods that are fat or heavy should be shunned in the changing season, when the body most parwith puddings, discard the pot roast and in their places substitute salads. fish, fruits and the uncooked cereals. Give the body a chance to work off the clinkers of winter without choking it lowing is an abstract from the letter: up with new fuel. The group of foods called proteins of which meat is most important, are those which, science tells us, build up body tissues. Now, the spring is not the season to build up tissue unless we have been overworked during winter; also the protein of meat is par ticularly likely to leave a residue of uric acid in the body offer our aim now is to house clean the system, and we want to avoid complicating the house cleaning by eating foods which will leave still more refuse. Avoid "Spring Fever" by Cutting Lesson V.—Third Quarter, For Lesson IV.—Third Quarter, For July 30, 1916. July 23, 1916.

Text of the Lesson, I Cor. i, 18, to ii, 5. Memory Verses, i, 22-24 - Golden Text, Gal. vi, 14-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

It is not many weeks since we had a Whitsuntide study in I Cor. ii, and now we are to have three studies in the letters to the Corinthians, with another a few weeks later. The epistles tell us of the church in this age and how we should live to glorify God. and therefore these studies ought to be most helpful. May the Spirit speak to our hearts. Sosthenes, who is associated with Paul in this epistle, was one of the rulers of the synagogue who was privileged to suffer shame publicly for Christ's sake (i, 1; Acts xviii, 17). The church of God at Corinth meant the company of sinners who had become saints by believing the good news concerning Jesus Christ and receiving Him as their Saviour.

How great sinners they had been is seen in chapter vi. 9, 10; but, being purchased with precious blood, they were now in Christ Jesus, saints, washed, sanctified and justified, wholly by the grace of God, apart from any merit or works of theirs (i, 2-4; vi, 11; Acts xx, 28. They were saved by the cross of Christ, which is the power of God (i, 18). Christ Jesus was made unto them, as He is to all believers; wisdom and righteousness and sanctification and redemption (1, 2, 1, c 30), for all that Christ is before God He makes His redeemed to be. As He is so are we in this world (I John iv, 17), which may mean that as He is before God so He makes His people to be even while we remain in these mortal bodies. There is another truth in this, and that is that as the world regards and treats Him we must expect the same, for we are here for Him, in His name, as His witnesses.

Although the standing before God in Christ of every saved sinner is so absolutely perfect, yet in these mortal bodies we are weakness itself, so that he had to reprove these believers as being carnal because of their envying and strife and factions, standing for this or that teacher instead of glorying in the Lord alone ii, 29, 31; iii, 1-7, 21. ed to make a living for the family till 23; Isa. ii, 22). Because of their unsickly and some were dying, forgetting that if we would judge ourselves we in the synagogue that Jesus was the might escape much chastening of the Christ, their Messiah (verses 4, 5 and might escape much chastening of the Lord (chapter xi, 30-32). We must expect trials, but we shall hever have more than He will give us grace to bear (chapter x, 13), and we should be come to him, reached him here at | Wednesday and Friday. careful not to bring unnecessary trials upon ourselves. The wisdom of this world and every arm of flesh we must lated in the R. V. "constrained by persistently turn away from, and, the Word." Weymouth says Paul was though we may be foolighted. though we may be foolish and weak preaching fervently. We think of Fairbairn, General Passenger Agent, and base and of no account in the eyes Jeremiah, who, when he was derided 68 King St. E., Toronto, Ont. 130-tf. of the world, yet if fully yielded to and reproached, was tempted to stop Christ He will be glorified in us. Apart speaking the Word of the Lord, but it CAT TRIED TO CLIMB IRON POLL through Christ, who strengtheneth us

(xv. 10; John v, 5; Phil. iv. 13). Probably the greatest reason why our Christian experience does not measure up to our standing, why we are not as to our daily life what we ought to be, is because we fail to grasp by faith what we really are in Christ, and, not seeing the fullness which is already ours in Him, we try to attain to it by our own efforts. If we only knew by believing what is written what is the hope of His calling and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us (Eph. i, 18, 19), we would live better lives because of what we really are in Christ before God. Next to the assurance of what we are now because of His finished work there is nothing so purifying, separating, uplifting, as the knowledge of what we shall be at His coming (I John iii, 1-3). Note what is chapters i, 7; iv, 5; vi, 2; xi, 26; xv, of fellowship with Him in His kingdom and glory make us more gladly willing to have fellowship with Him now in humiliation and suffering (I John i, 3; Phil. iii. 10). He is pleas ed to call us "laborers together with Him," and yet He does it all, working in us both to will and to do of His good pleasure (chapter iii. 9; Phil. ii. 13; Heb. xiii, 20, 21). We are bought with a price, even the precious blood of Christ, that we may be temples of the Holy Spirit, who worketh in each one as He will when He can have the right of way in us (chapter vi, 19, 20; xii, 7-11). The one only foundation is Jesus Christ, the sure foundation (chapter ili, 11; Isa. xxviii, 16; I Pet. ii. 6), all else being as sand, a refuge of lies (Matt. vii, 26, 27; Isa. xxviii, 17). But we may be safely on this foundation and yet so build, so live, that the building, the daily life, not being acceptable to God, shall not be approved in that day, but rejected and the believer suffer irreparable loss and find himself just barely saved—saved as by fire (chapter ill, 12-15). This was evidently what Paul had in mind when he spoke of denying self that his service might not be disapproved or rejected (chapter ix, 25-27, R. V.). We may not judge others till the evidence is all in, but we may and should judge ourselves always by the question: Will He approve? Is this of the Lord?

gave a faithful testimony, and some believed (chapter xvii, 34). The messenger of the Lord is apt to be discouraged if he finds opposition to his message and seemingly few, if any, believing, or if after a faithful testimony there is neither a "thank you" nor a word of appreciation. It is true that we must never speak to please people nor covet their approval, but most of us are so awfully human that a word of gratitude from one who has been helped by the message is very cheering (I Thess. il. 4; II Tim. ii, 15). The devil will be sure to tell you that you have accomplished nothing and had better seek some other occupation, and messengers have been known to heed his suggestion. I am thankful that some one said to me many years ago, as I wondered if any good was being done: "Do you recollect that when the devil sowed his tares he went his way, for he was sure that they would grow? And you do not seem to think that the Word of God is as good seed as the devil's tares." That helped me greatly, and since then I have gone my way after a service, saying: "Thank God; that will work; it will surely accomplish His pleasure" (Isa. lv. 11; Jer. i, 12, R. V.).
Leaving Athens, Paul went to Low Fares to Corinth, a wicked, worldly, commercial center, notorious for its immorality, and the first thing we read of him is, not that he preached, but that he found employment with some who were of the same craft with himselfthat of tent making-and he abode with them (verses 1-3). He would rather work at his trade and thus earn his living than be a burden to any one. He afterward wrote to this people, asking them to forgive him if he had wronged them by not being a burden to them (II Cor. xii, 13-16). It does

"Puss" the gentiles and found an open door in a house close by the synagogue, owned by a man named Justus, who wor, scraped against the iron so loudly shiped God (verses 6, 7). When God that the noise could be heard over wants His message proclaimed He will one hundred feet away. Pussy reached provide a place. I held a class in one the first ridge of the pole and not town where all the churches were closed against me for the truth's sake, but down. The dog started in chase, but in his parlors, and so we continued. Paul said concerning one place, "A great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries" (I Cor. xvi, 9). Notwithstanding the opposition at Corinth there was much encouragement, for the chief ruler of written in this epistle concerning it in the synagogue and all his house believed and also many of the Corinthians 23.51; rvi, 22, and may the thought | (verse 8). No doubt it was, as always, because of the manifest work of the Holy Spirit that the devil stirred up such opposition. How Paul must have been strengthened to continue by that most gracious visit of the Lord Jesus Himself, who came to him in the night and said, "Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace, for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee, for I have much people in this city" (verses 9, 10). The day that the Lord appeared to him on the way to Damascus He said, "I have appeared unto thee, and I will appear unto thee" (chapter xxvi, 16), and this was one of those other appearings to him. We have His completed word and can hear Him speak to us at any time if only we have ears to hear, for He
