ASPARAGUS AND ONION CULTURE.

That luscious vegetable asparagus, available only in the spring and early summer months, might readily be grown much more extensively than it is. If properly prepared, that is well drained, a bed may remain for twelve or fifteen years and will improve during most of this period if properly looked after. One has to wait a couple of years for a crop after a bed is set out, but the relief from planting, which is necessary with most crops, during succeeding years more than offsets this disadvantage. Asparagus culture is dealt with in a practical way in Pamphlet No. 24 of the Central Experimental Farm, which is available at the Publications Branch at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. In this pamphlet celery culture is also taken up. The soil, growing the plants, planting, cultivation, blanching and storing are dealt with.

That appetizing vegetable, the onion, also occupies a place in this pamphlet which points out that the seed should be sown about one-half an inch deep in rows from twelve to fourteen inches apart, at the rate of from four to six pounds of seed per acre. The large Red Watersfield, Yellow Globe Danvers, and the Southport Yellow Globe are recommended as suitable for the warmer sections of Canada. Early White Barletta and White Queen are suitable sorts for pickling, while the Prairie Provinces Extra Early Red or Early Flat Red give best results.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is the positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
