THE HECLA WAY

Hecla joints are practically one solid sheet of metal. Iron and steel are heated to white heat and fused by our patented process, used only on our furnaces. The joint is just as tight as that which a blacksmith makes when he welds two pieces of iron together. No cement—no bolts to work loose. And the Hecla joint will be as tight at the end of ten years as it was before the first fire. Fused joints in furnaces installed zo years ago, are as tight to-day, as the day they were made.

LIBERALS NOT PLEASED BLOODLESS GIRLS

At Prospect of Power Through Balfour's Resignation.

Premier Will Discuss Matter With His Cabinet To-day and It Is Believed He Will Go From the Meeting to King Edward With the Resignations of Himself and Other Members of the Cabinet.

London, Nov. 24.—There was tremen dous activity in political circles yester-day consequent on the circulation of a well-founded report that Premier Balfour had decided to bring his Minis.ry to a close and to directly or indirectly appeal to the country. Rumors regarding the resignation of the Cabinet and the dissolution of Parliament have been thick for three months past, but when two of the leading Government organs yesterday almost in the same terms "suggested" the immediate resignation of the Premier on account of the unmendable breach in the Unionist party over the fiscal question, the "suggestion" was looked upon as having been inspired by Mr. Balfour himself. This was strengthened by the knowledge that prior to the publication of the editorials, Mr. Balfour met certain influential persons at his official residence in Dewning streat. These trans tain influential persons at his official tain influential persons at his official residence in Downing street. These two facts, when coupled, led to the belief that the Premier had intimated at the conference his intention to resign, and as he had just returned from a visit to King Edward at Windsor Castle, it was believed that His Majesty had to King Edward at Windsor Castle, it was believed that His Majesty had been informed of Mr. Balfour's intentions. Beyond this, however, there is not the slightest official confirmation of

I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enough for the great good they have done me."

A pale, anaemic person needs only one thing—new blood. Cr. Williams' Pink Pills do not thing only — they make new blood. That is all they do, but they do it well. They don't act on the bowels. They don't bother with mere symitoms. They won't cure any disease that isn't caused originally from bad blood. But when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills replace bad blood with good blood they they they have bead they existed. the report.

Meeting of the Cabinet.

All political interest now centres in the Cabinet meeting to be held to-day, at which it is understood the situation will be discussed. Some well-informed persons go so far as to say that Mr. Balfour will go from the meeting to King Edward with the resignations of himself and the other ways. self and the other members of the

But when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills replace bad blood with good blood they strike straight at the root and cause of all common diseases like headaches, sideaches, backaches, kidney trouble, liver complaint, bliousness, indigestion, anaemia, neuralgia, sciatica, locomotor ataxia and the special secret troubles that every woman

Stirling, Scotland, Nov. 24.—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, leader of the Liberal party, speaking here last night, said that the air had been cleared to some extent by Premier Balfour when addressing the National Union of Conservative Associations at Newcastle-on-Tyne, Nov. 14, he said: "I am not afraid of the Opposition, but of my own friends," and by Joseph Chamberlain at Bristol, when he said, "Away with all Jame ducks and blunt Away with all lame ducks and blunt swords."

The Liberals, said Sir Henry, might have had sympathy for Mr. Balfour if they knew his policy, but no one knew if that policy was to deliver the Conservative party from or to Joseph Chamberlain.

Sir Henry plainly outlined his attitude toward Home Rule for Ireland. He said that the only way to heal the difficulties of the Irish Government, and to make Ireland strong instead of weak was to give the Irish people the management of their own domestic affairs. He said that opinions regarding Ireland in this respect were becoming stronger. Herb W. Edwares, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fail on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and knees. "The next day," he says, 'they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared.
