Local Happenings.

The Rev. Dr. Hutchins will preach in the Baptist church Sunday, March 21st, morning and evening.

The Senior Sophomore hockey team defeated the Junior-Freshmen on Thursday evening last by the score of 4-2.

Rev. A. C. Borden will preach at Sheffield Mills next Sunday at 3 p. m. The Hillside Male Quartette will be present to assist in the musical service.

Will pay $500 to $1500 cash for house and plot or small farm in Wolfville. Give particulars. Correspondence confidential. Box 1, Kentville, N. S. 26 2 in.

On Wednesday, Mar. 24th, Miss Saxton will show trimmed models of unusual excellence featuring the new styles in millinery, which are cordially invited to see.

On account of the concert at Port Williams, in which some of Wolfville Scouts will take part, the finals of the Scout Competition will not be held until next Friday night.

The Sixth Annual Maritime Horse Show will be held in Amherst, April 7th, 8th, and 9th. Exceptionally cheap rates on all lines of transportation.

We understand that Mrs. R. D. G. Harris is making preparation for the erection of another dwelling on her property on Sea View avenue. It is to be of the most approved style and ready for occupancy early in the summer.

J. D. Chambers has opened this week two cases of English Cottons and Lanes, imported direct from Manchester. For two weeks he offers a special discount of ten per cent. off regular prices. See the display in centre of store.

Windsor was completely snowed under by Wolfville hockey on Friday evening last. The game throughout was fast and clean, resulting in the score of 18 to 7. R. Leeman, of Acadia, handled the wheel to the satisfaction of all.

This being the end of the 3rd month of the R. C. T. R. Mission, which has pleasure in sending $500 to the Red Cross Fund and suggests as $500 will pay for the equipment of a single bed at the Canadian Hospital Children that the Committee send the amount there.

The Men's Class will meet as usual Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dr. DeWolfe will teach the lesson 'The Greeks seeking Jesus.' Rev. F. S. Porter's address to the class last Sunday was much appreciated. He dealt with 'The Great War and its Compensations.'

At the Tabernacle Sunday-school last Sunday afternoon Harold Weatherby, who represented the school at the recent Boys' Convention at Halifax, presented an interesting report of the Conference which was very much enjoyed by the school and very creditable to one of the youngest delegates who attended the Conference.

FOR SALE.—One Chatham Incubator and Brooder in good working order—capacity one hundred and twenty eggs. Also a large Magic Lantern, with lots of views on the Spanish American war. Both will be sold cheap for cash.

WM. O. TAYLOR.

Acadia street, Wolfville.
Mrs. Maude Allen assisted in a song recital at Carnegie Hall, New York, and gave her audience genuine pleasure. She has a beautiful rich, sympathetic voice and sings with good interpretation. Mrs. Allen, who has already been heard with much favor in Wolfville, will be the soprano in the concert March 20th and 21st in College Hall.

Beginning with today's ACADIAN, photographer Graham, in his regular of space, will give the pointers to beginners in photography. These 'pointers' are first principles and are really answers to questions which are asked every day in the studio by camera users, and should be helpful to all those who do not consider themselves advanced in camera craft.

Of Mr. Edward Ready, the celebrated tenor, a critic says: 'Mr. Ready possesses a wonderful voice. It is so beautifully modulated that it reaches the high notes with ease and in the lower register is rich and true. He fairly captivated his audience, bringing forth round after round of applause. Mr. Ready will be heard in Wolfville, Tuesday evening, March 29, 1915.'

FOR SALE.—Cheap, at once, one pneumatic tired wagon, for cash. May be seen at WOLFVILLE GARAGE.

Miss Eleanor P. Sands, contralto, has already been heard in Wolfville and interested her audience by her artistic work. She possesses excellent musical talent and has had the best musical training. Her work is always interesting, attractive and musically intelligent. She will be heard in solo and quartette work Tuesday evening, March 29th, at the Choral rendering of the Rose Maiden.

Personal Mention.

(Contributions to this department will be gladly received.)
Miss Pious Morrison, of Halifax, has been visiting in town—the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Elderkin.

Confirmation at St. John's Church.

Last week (11th) Archbishop Worrell held a confirmation at St. John's church, and admitted nine candidates to full membership. Before the service the rector read an address congratulating his grace on his elevation to archiepiscopal rank, to which he made an appropriate reply. After the laying on of hands the Archbishop gave a very impressive address on Prayer, and spoke some words of fatherly advice to the newly confirmed. The office of Archbishop, to which Dr. Worrell was recently appointed by the election of his brother bishops, carries with it an essential change in his powers and functions, and it is simply that of president of the House of Bishops in the civil provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, P. E. I. and Quebec. These civil provinces form the ecclesiastical province of Canada. Ontario forms another province. All the territory between Ontario and the Rocky Mountains a third and the four by the name of Columbia includes the civil province of B. C. Each of these provinces has its own 'Metropolitan,' who takes the title of Archbishop and is elected for life by the other bishops. As a rule the senior bishop (in length of service) is elected. Dr. Worrell's official title is Archbishop of Nova Scotia. The position of Archbishop is very closely analogous to that of Chief Justice, 'first amongst equals.'

Basket Ball.

The 'Camp Fire Girls' of Wolfville, were defeated in basket ball by the Kings County Academy girls by the score of 21 to 14 on Tuesday evening last. This was the first game and they did exceedingly well considering such inconveniences as being compelled to play one girl short, on a floor waxed for dancing, and half the time to rules altogether foreign to their way of playing and also all standard rule books.

After the game refreshments were served to the Wolfville players and supporters by the Academy girls, followed by a short dance. The visitors left for home at 11 o'clock amidst a showering of good will and merriment. It is understood that a return game will be played in the near future, when the home girls will endeavor to even up the honors.

Red Cross "At Home."

Wolfville has been deeply interested since Thursday, the 11th inst., when Mrs. Albert D. Elderkin was hostess at the most successful and unique tea of the season. It was a Red Cross Tea, given in honor of Mrs. Elderkin's cousin, Major H. M. Jacques, of the Hospital Medical Corps, Ottawa, who will shortly leave with Col. Farberingham for France, as D. A. D. M. S. (Director Assistant Doctor of the Medical Service).

At the approach of the house was particularly attractive. The veranda was gay with flags 'en groups' and flying from its columns, while within the house the same decorative scheme was carried out, the effect enhanced by candles and lamps with crimson shades. The hostess and her efficient corps of assistants wore the white garb and badge of the Crimson Cross. Prominent among these were the well trained girls of the 'Camp Fire' who ably assisted in all the arrangements for the day. Little Misses Laurette Benjamin and Pauline Miller were ushers. Misses Violet Black, Annie Stewart and Hilda Johnson checked the wraps.

Mrs. Elderkin was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Charles S. Fitch and Mrs. W. Marshall Black. Miss Ellen Burgess, of Ottawa, and Miss Florence Morrison, of Halifax, were the home guests.

The decorative effect of the spacious dining room was wonderfully charming. The table, at which Mrs. Chambers (tea) and Mrs. Miller, relieved by Mrs. Murray (coffee) presided, was a dream of beauty, with its Red Cross symbol through the entire centre of the white hand embroidered center, under candlesticks which were topped with the daintiest crimson shades. Tall vases of golden daffodils completed the color scheme.

The ice-cream table, under the care of Mrs. Clarence Borden, was a most attractive feature.

While delicious refreshments, suggestive of the underlying intent of the tea, were served by the competent, graceful and infatigable assistants, Miss Gertrude Borden, at intervals, rendered in a most excellent style suitable selections of music.

But behind all this was the patriotic idea of the hostess for furthering the Red Cross movement. The invitations, about two hundred and seventy in number, daintily decorated with the Red Cross, contained a request that the guests, who represented Wolfville and vicinity, should bring with them a signed receipt with signature, about 800 of which were taken at the door towards furnishing a part of the subject matter of a Red Cross Cook Book.

Arrangements towards this end are already in a formative stage of which the public will be informed later. The guests as a whole were most enthusiastic and in full sympathy with the scheme and about one hundred copies of the proposed cook book were engaged on the moment. Each guest was asked to consider herself a committee of one to further and promote the success of 'The Red Cross Cook Book for Kings County.'

Vesper Service.

The following musical selections will be rendered at the vesper service in the Baptist church Sunday evening, March 21st, at 7 p. m., with Mrs. Richmond director and Miss Rockwell organist.

Hark, Hark, my Soul—Shelley; Misses Spidell, Nelly and Choir.
Father, in Thy Mysterious Presence—Scott; Messrs. Manning, Welton, Misses Curry, Nelly and Choir.
The Day is Ruddy—Bartlett; with violin, Misses Sands, D. Wolfe and Choir.

Contralto Solo, Crossing the Bar—Cowley; Miss Eunice Curry.
Resting Bye and Bye; Choir unaccompanied.
Trio, Twilight; Misses MacLean, Curry, MacLean.

The March To The Battle Field.

OR, CANADA'S MEN ON THE WAY.
The above is the title given a picture that will for my years to come be a highly prized treasure. It is a photographic reproduction showing 35,000 men of Canada's first contingent breaking camp and on the march to join the Continental forces. It shows miles and miles of the white tents and the marching men. It is a most inspiring sight. The size is 20x46 inches all ready for framing. This picture is sure to be a popular souvenir of the war as far as Canada is concerned, and will be in great demand. It is owned by The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, and a copy is being presented to all subscribers to that great national weekly newspaper. The Family Herald, Montreal, whose subscription of one dollar a year is received from this date for a limited period.

'O! Mr. Gerald McIlhenny the Halifax Chronicle says: 'To Mr. McIlhenny is due full credit for having crowned the success of the concert. His singing of 'Ere Bravest Heart,' from Faust was exceptionally good. In quality of voice and excellence of dramatic interpretation this singer's work is really worth while.' The Halifax Herald says, 'Gerald McIlhenny is a wonderfully good baritone. His technique is admirable and he sings with the style of a finished vocalist.' Mr. McIlhenny will be here both Monday and Tuesday evenings, March 29 and 30, at the Music Festival in Wolfville.

BONN.

Opera House.

On Monday evening, March 22nd, The Academy Players, of Halifax, will present for one performance only Wm. H. Crane's greatest comedy success, 'The Senator Keeps House', at the Opera House. The action of the play takes place in Washington, D. C., and tells the story of a senator working against an unknown woman who is trying to get a certain bill passed by congress. During the course of the play the woman becomes the senator's housekeeper and gradually brings him around to her way of thinking without either party knowing it. When the actual state of affairs becomes known to them, the housekeeper wants to leave but the senator has fallen in love and persuades her to remain and become his wife.

Mr. Wm. H. Crane considers 'The Senator Keeps House' as great a success as 'Father and the Boys'. Some time during the performance at the Opera House next Monday evening, by special request, Mr. John Junior will render the great international song success, 'Sister Susie's Sewing Shirts for Soldiers.'
