 Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the 160 acres more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

- (1). At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.
- (2). A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.
- (3). If the father (or mother if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).
- (4). The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.
- (5). A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing should be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

Old Mother Hubbard went to the cupboard to get her poor dog a bone. 'She'll find it bare, all right,' sighed the dog.

'How do you know?' asked the cat. 'She hasn't opened it yet.'

'No, but don't you know she keeps summer boarders?'

And when the cupboard was opened there was not a meal for a cold mouse.

ARRIVAL OF PRINCE IN QUEBEC

Nothing Occurred to Mar The Brilliant Spectacle all Day.

QUEBEC, July 23.—Not a single incident occurred to mar the series of the brilliant spectacles which lasted from early morning until sun set today.

The great event of the day was the formal welcome of the Prince of Wales by Mayor Garneau, which was a gorgeous ceremonial.

The reception took place at the foot of the magnificent statue of Champlain on Dufferin Terrace, which formed the natural scene for such a function that could not be surpassed.

Prominent amongst the official party were: Mayor Garneau in gown and cocked hat; Lord Roberts, their Excellencies Earl and Lady Grey; Admiral Jargursky, Grenada representative; and Vice-President Fairbank, representing the United States.

The streets from the Citadel to the Court were lined with troops, while behind the platform was the guard of honor from the 49th Highlanders, whose band also played the Royal Salute.

Guarding the approaches from the streets were serried ranks of cavalry, so there was no suggestion of crowding within the charmed circles.

Long before the time set for the Prince's arrival the stands filled up. More distinguished arrivals were recognized. Early in the afternoon Earl Roberts came in, accompanied by Col. Denison and Sir Arthur B. Grey. Lord Roberts was greeted with cheering from all sides.

A little later came the officers of the British fleet and those from the French and American warships.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. R. B. Borden were cheered by thousands as they arrived. The Prince took an elevated chair in the centre, accompanied by Countess Grey, while on either side were Governor-General, Vice-President Fairbank and Admiral Jargursky, Lord Roberts and other military officials taking positions in the rear.

Earl Grey presented Mayor Garneau to the Prince, and His Worship then read the formal civic address of welcome.

Heat prostrates the nerves. In the summer one needs a tonic to offset the customary hot weather Nerve and Strength depression. You will feel better within 18 hours after beginning to take such a remedy as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Its prompt action in restoring the weakened nerves is truly strong, as you won't get tired. That tired, listless, spiritless feeling will quickly depart when using the Restorative. It doesn't require the presence of a green flag to indicate that her sons are on the spot? Sheridan can also be added.

IRISHMEN ARE ON THE SPOT.

The Toronto Globe says: Ireland has been denied separate representation at the Olympic games, but with Flannigan, McGrath and Walsh first, second and third in the hammer-throwing, it doesn't require the presence of a green flag to indicate that her sons are on the spot? Sheridan can also be added.

THIS COLLECTOR HAD A CONSCIENCE

LONDON, Wednesday.—A souvenir collector with a conscience has been found but not identified. When the Queen recently made a private visit to the Franco-British Exposition she paid sixpence at the turnstile in an old London coin, which was carefully placed under a framed glass on the outside of the show. On Monday the glass was broken and the coin stolen.

A reward of £25 was offered for information which would lead to the conviction of the thief. Yesterday the sixpence was returned from the Hotel Cecil with a note apologizing for having given any trouble. The sender said he had no idea that the coin was so valuable. He signs himself, 'A Specialty Hunter,' and asks to be excused for enclosing his card.

THE HUMAN TONGUE

It is Very Inquisitive. With a Will of its Own.

The curiosity of the tongue does not cause the human being so much trouble as the curiosity of the eye, but the tongue, within its limits, is the most curious of all.

Let the dentist make a change in the mouth, let him remove a tooth or replace with his admirable artifice one that has long been absent, let him change the form of a tooth by rounding off a corner or building up a cavity, and see what the tongue will do. It will search out that place, taking careful and minute account of the change. Then it will linger near the place. If it is called to other duties, it comes back as soon as they are discharged and feels the changed place all over again, as if it had not explored and rummaged there already.

It makes no difference that these repeated investigations presently cause annoyance to its supposed master the man. The tongue in nothing more than in this matter proves that it is an unruly member and will not be controlled.

It seems to have an original will and consciousness of its own, and nothing will serve it except the fullest satisfaction of its curiosity. It will wear itself out, perhaps, but it will find out all about the strange change.

CANES IN SPAIN.

Some of the Natives Have a Small Arsenal of Them.

Every Spaniard has a stick, the well to do own several, and the 'soldado youth' often has a small arsenal of them. The term arsenal in this case is used positively and not figuratively, as the Porto Ricans, like the Spaniards, have quite a craze for sword canes, and they make these with remarkable skill.

The blades of the finer specimens come from famous smiths in Toledo and other Spanish cities and are forged from the finest steel. Some are damascened and others are inlaid with silver and gold, some have worked upon them the name of the owner and others the name of a patron saint. The assortment of walking sticks in the shops in the larger towns is very varied.

They have fashions in sticks and canes suited to different ages and professions. There are sedate mahogany, ebony and rosewood sticks for clerical men and physicians and fanciful bamboo with gleaming steel inside for men about town. There are rough oak sticks for the Spanish Anglomaniacs and saucy little staves for those who ape the styles of the boulevard. For travelers there are coffee sticks, thorns, tea sticks, leopard wood canes and orange sticks.—London Chronicle.

Funerals in Peru.

According to social usage, women in Peru cannot attend funerals, and they do not appear at weddings unless they are very intimate friends. When a funeral procession passes through the streets the coffin is carried upon the shoulders of the pallbearers, who are followed by an empty hearse drawn by two, four or six horses, according to the means of the mourners and their desire for display. All the male members of the family and friends of the deceased follow on foot, with a line of empty carriages behind them. As long as they are in the presence of the dead it is considered a proper and necessary evidence of respect to walk. After the body has been committed to the grave those who attend the funeral are brought home in carriages.

He Followed the Water.

'Could you do something for a poor old sailor?' asked a wanderer at the rear door of a suburban house one morning recently.

'Poor old sailor?' echoed the housewife, who had opened the door.

'Yes'm. I followed the water for twenty years.'

'Well,' said the lady as she slammed the door in the face of her unwelcome visitor, 'all I've got to say is you certainly don't look as though you had ever caught it.'—London Answers.

'Alexandria, Egypt.'

All correspondents with Egypt in all parts of the world should be warned that it is necessary to put the word 'Egypt' on all communications addressed to Alexandria, as a great deal of trouble and annoyance has been caused owing to communications addressed to the Egyptian city being delivered to Scotland, Canada, New South Wales, Cape Colony, Italy, the United States of America and other countries where towns of the same name exist.—Egyptian Gazette, Alexandria.

The Berliner.

On the theory that might goes before right the Berliner fights his way past old ladies and tired women into crowded tram cars and ruthlessly jostles from his path the passerby in the streets with an obstinate insolence that goads the visitor accustomed to the higher civilization of other capitals to impotent fury.—Berlin Cor. London Outlook.

THE 73RD WELL REPRESENTED.

Picked Men of The North Shore Took Part In The Tercentenary Celebration

Three officers and forty men formed the detachment of the 73rd which went from this country to take part in the Quebec operations. They were under command of Capt. W. H. Belue of Newcastle, and Lieut. W. D. Gunter. At Campbellton, they picked up Capt. A. E. G. McKenzie, who took command of the detachment, and six men. The stretcher-bearer section went from Chatham under the command of Serg. Carl Watters.

JUDGE TASCHEREAU MAY RESIGN

If so, His Successor Will Probably be Premier Gouin of Quebec.

A special Quebec despatch to the 'Patrie' mentions a rumor of the probable resignation of Chief Justice Sir Henri Taschereau, in October next, when the learned judge will have attained his seventieth year, and completed twenty years of active service on the Bench. The rumor adds that the Hon. Mr. Gouin will succeed him and that the Hon. Mr. Archambault will become Premier of the province.

WEDDING BELLS.

TWEEDIE-RITCHIE.

At Chatham on Wednesday Mr. Fred M. Tweedie, son of the lieutenant governor, and Mrs. Frances A. Ritchie were married by Rev. George Wood. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Samuel Habberly, grandfather of the bride, in the presence of immediate relatives. The bride and groom were unattended. Lunch was eaten at the residence of Collector Watt, father of the bride, and the happy pair went to Newcastle in the groom's steam yacht, Wenonah, and took the Ocean Limited for a short bridal tour to Quebec and Ontario.

Cure for Weak Lungs

'I have used your Psychine for about six months, and have found it an excellent remedy for pneumonia and weak lungs.' Ronald Johnson, Farewell, Ont., April 15, 1907.

'Psychine is one of the best medicines on the market, and for all throat and lung troubles is unexcelled.'—A word from a man who has tested it.

Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and all throat, lung and stomach troubles yield to Psychine. At all druggists, 50c. and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, Toronto.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women or received so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., any woman any day may see the files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, and here are the letters in which they openly state over their own signatures that they were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs, without drugs, and is wholesome and harmless.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the feminine organism, restoring it to a healthy normal condition.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

Dear Chum:

I am enjoying my visit with grandpa and grandma hugely. Yesterday grandpa took me down to the docks to see the ocean liners. Gee! they're whoppers! I bought me my third box of Moir's Chocolates. They are the sweetest candies ever. The chocolate outside are awfully smooth and rich, and in the inside are cream, jellies and nuts. Those called Moir's Chocolate Chips taste like honey dipped in chocolate. Another kind called Moir's Nougatines are so good that I teased grandma into promising me another box tomorrow. * * * not a bit homesick.

Your old chum,
