THE WORLD OF FASHION

POEM IN GREEN AND IN BROWN.

Soft Cinnamon Shade Over a Mossy Tint Draws Admiring Glances.

Concerning the graceful effect of the new double skirts, under their latest development, skilfully draped by a master hand, there can scarcely be two opinions, although if they are to be absolutely successful, they must be made in fabrics that are soft in texture and light in weight.

A charming example of a really graceful double skirt may be seen in one of our great stores in cinnamon brown silk colienne, made up over a foundation of the store of the sto figure below the waist, and then allowed to flow out with graceful fulness, the folds falling in unbroken lines to within a little distance of the hem. These draperies open down the centre, and are arranged in such a way that they are much longer at the back than in front, of a long Directoire coat.

Exceptionally pretty is the bodice of this gown, with its draped fichu folds of cinnamon brown collenne, and its touches of dark green velvet on either side, outlined with brown soutache embroidery. Across a dainty chemisette of white muslin and lightly looped and finished with gold ornaments. Frills of cinnamon brown chiffon, very finely accordion pleated, form the sleeves.

brown chiffon, very finely accordion pleated, form the sleeves.

In the hat, and again in the sunshade, the same idea of a harmony in green and brown finds picturesque expression, while in the closely massed clusters of violets, shaded from palest mauve to deepest purple, an effective centrast of color is introduced with excellent effect. The hat is of very fine cinnamon brown straw, lined underneath the brim with green straw, and arranged with a close wreath of green foliage below the bunches of mauve and purple violets. The sunshade is of cinnamon brown chiffon, trimmed with kilted frills to match the sleeves, and lined with moss green mousseline de lined with moss green mousseline soie, very finely tucked and gathered.

LENGTH OF DRESSES.

Little Folk No Longer Made Absurd by Either Extreme.

As regards the length of children's resses, by common consent the very nort frocks, curtailed considerably bove the knees, have been tabooed, and for children's wear as enthusiastically a they are for their elders are various de-grees of the soft Nattier tints, as well as the lovely "faince" blue, which is so-much less trying to the pink and white of a young child's face than it is to the fwoman who has left her jeunesse doree

There are Indiannes.
These are India cottons.
That is, they were originally.
Now they may be made in Alsace.
Also, they are made in near-by New Jersey.

The designs range from posies to paisy patterns. Heavier flowered cottons serve to trim

Hats are covered with cottons as well s linens.

Indeed, cottons have never enjoyed reater vogue than at present.
YOUR PLUMES.

They May be Easily Washed and Even Dyed.

Restoring dingy white feathers is real. ly a very simple matter, since they may be washed with perfect safety. To do this, make a lather of white soap, warm water and borax, and wash the feathers, water and borax, and wash the feathers, rubbing them as one would any ordinary article in the wash until the dirt is removed. Then rinse thoroughly in warm water (clear), and finally in warm water to which a small pinch of blueing has been added. If a cream tint is desired, the last bath is omitted.

The feather will not appear to be perfectly clean while wet, so do not expect it.

Heary cream with the pect it.

Hang up to dry, then hold over steam to make the flues fluffy, when the feathers are ready for curling.

To dye a clean feather it is only necessary to add oil paint (bought #mong artists' materials, by the tube), to enough gasoline to easily accommodate the feather. It should be done out of doors on account of the gasoline. Hang on the deather line to dry and shake until on account of the gasoline. Hang on the clothes line to dry and shake until

The Bright Touch.

Color, of course.

Woman must have it.
It may be in her hat.
It may be in embroidery.
Sashes and neckwear may show it.

ILLS OF BABYHOOD AND OF CHILDHOOD

The ills of babyhood and childhood are many, and may prove serious if not promptly cured. In homes where Baby's Own Tablets are kept there is a prompt cure at hand for such troubles as indigestion, sour stomach, colic, constipation, diarrhoea, worms, teething troubles and other minor ailments, and the Tablets can be administered as safely to a new born baby as to the well grown child. Mrs. Cctave Paulin, Caraquet. N. B., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for both my little boy and girl for the various ailments of childhood and have found them always a splendid medicine. No above the knees, have been tabooed, and any exaggeration in this respect is as much out of date as is the long Greenaway, which touches the ground all round, and which was such a distinct annoyance in play hours to the little folk some ten years or so ago.

Frocks are, in fact, of moderate length, while, instead of the invariable rule of tan stockings and shoes, a great fancy will be shown this season for little colored chaussues to match the frocks, the stockings being carried out én suite.

Among the colors which are accepted

Vest of delft blue to be worn with blue or black tailored suit The silk is drawn down to the buckle at the waistline. The hat should match the vest.

BLOOD MAKING TONIC TREATMENT

A Cure For Anaemia That Is Showing Remarkable Proofs of Cures In Stubborn Cases.

When the body becomes weak and run down, either from overwork, worry or severe illness, an examination of the blood would show it to be weak and blood would show it to be weak and watery. This condition is called anacmia, which is the medical term for "bloodlessness." The common symptoms are paleness of the lips, gums and cheeks, shortness of breath and palpitation of the heart after the slightest exertion, dull eyes and loss of appetite. Anaemia itself is a dangerous disease and every greately press into consumption. aemia itself is a dangerous disease and may gradually pass into consupption. It can only be cured by treating its cause—which is the poor condition of the blood. The blood must be made rich, and red, thereby enabling it to carry the necessary nourishment to every part of the body.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the greatest medicine in the world for making new, rich blood and they have been curing anaemia and other blood disease for nearly a generation, and are greatest medicine in the world for massing new, rich blood and they have been curing anaemia and other blood discases for nearly a generation, and are now recognized the world over as an invaluable household remedy.

Mrs. D. Estabrook, Brooklyn Road, N. B., says: "My daughter Gertrude, who is now in her sixteenth year, was sickly from early childhood; we were constantly doctoring for her, but it did not seem to help her in the least. In fact, as she grew older she seemed to grow weaker. She was always pale and listless, suffered from headaches, dizziness and palpitation of the heart. She did not rest at night, and would often toss and moan the whole night. Finally she had to discontinue going to school, toss and moan the whole night. Finally she had to discontinue going to school, and as she was continually taking doctors' medicine without benefit, I grew discouraged, and feared we would lose her. Friends urged us to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I finally decided to do so. By the time she had taken three boxes there was an improvement, and a little later she was able to return to school. From that on she grew stronger, had an excellent appetite, slept well at night, and is now as healthy a girl as you will see. I believe that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved her life, and as a mother I would recommend these pills to every family in which there are young girls.

young girls.

All medicine dealers sell these pills or you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Out.

The New Styles for Women.

"If the new summer gowns have a onspicuous note at all this year it is in heir trimmings, which seem to stand conspicuous note at all this year it is in their trimmings, which seem to stand out in bold relief," "ays Grace Margaret Gould in Woman's Home Companion for May. "Much soutache in all widths and heavy cottoe braid are used, in white and dyed to match the fabric. In the skirt and coat suits the outline of the coat is shown by the line of braiding, and either braid or buttons not infrequently trim the back.

"Tassels are very much used wherever a place for them can be found. The heavy and the fine laces are fashionable in combination for trimming both gowns and separate blouses

"Very narrow satin plaitings are much used as a trimming for silk voile and net gowns. They are often introduced in some brilliant shade, such as empire green, on a gown of neutral tint. Plaitings of this style frequently simulate a old conceits on children's frocks in serge bib effect on the bodice and outline a tunic effect in the skirt.

A model in natural pongee is trimmed with large covered buttons. The hat is of white chip with two greeen quills.

"Buttons are used not only where they are needed, but where they are not needed on the new gowns. For the tailored suits there are the fabric-covered buttons and the braid buttons.

"The white and colored cotton crochet button is extremely high style, and for lingeric waists there are the new pearl bead buttons."

CONSISTENCY IN THE MORNING.

Parisienne When Practical in Dres Leaves no Sartorial Stone Unturneds

A rigid consistency rules the choice of the Frenchwoman where her morning costumes are concerned. A plain and workmanlike hat for a correspondingly practical costume is her inviolable rule, and her trotteur is her inviolable rule, and her trotteur simplicity.

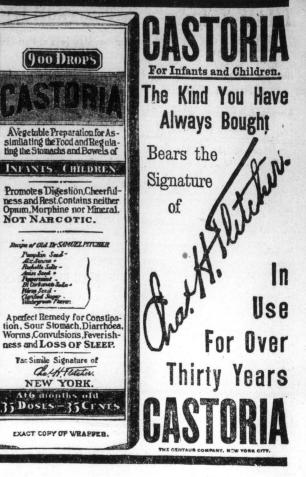

The latest idea in the matter of headgear is a modified William of Orange hat of soft, fine straw in mirt green or wood brown, designed to accompany the blue serge costume, and which is simply trimmed with a rope of self-colored velvet and a great bunch of paroquet tail feathers in all their gorgeous colorings, the entire absence of any additional decoration bringing the brilliant hues of the plumage into even greater relief.

Every tailor-made costume nowadays must have its attendant grandfather frill or cascade of creamy lace with which to set it off to the best possible advantage. In cases when the grandfather frill is chosen in preference to the lace cascade, snow-white net or tulle is the only material permissible, the frill being of the most exaggerated dimensions at the top, where it is caught with a tiny bow of black velvet.

The new coat, which is scooped out considerably at the top and caught together with a couple of buttons, permits of a full view being obtained of the frill in question, while it is equally in evidence in conjunction with the genuine directoire coat with is long swallow-tails and short open jacket.

SHIRT WAISTS.

Rapidity being the order of the day, some workers have simplified the quaint but slow way of smocking by grouping straight pleats in behive cells, diamonds, lattice-work, chevrons and the

Che St Fleteter. NEW YORK.

900 Drops

NOT NARCOTIC.

SHIRT WAISTS.

Many girls are making their own.
Heavy ones are treated to machine stitching.

Fine ones, especially sheer ones, are done by hand.

Tucks range from the pin variety to the plait.

Two rows of Val. lace often edge the centre plait of a sheer waist.

Embroidered and dotted fabrics are nuch liked and are usually effective.

SMOCKING NOVELTY

or Children's Frocks a Ribbon Substitute is Noted.

Rapidity being the order.

How to Clean Gloves.

In the country good thick gloves, at he stitched backs, long wristed, are the most comfortable wear. White such and kindred gloves are best restored to the most comfortable wear. White such and kindred gloves are best restored to the provider of powdered alum and fuller's earth of powdered alum and fuller's earth of powdered alum and fuller search of powdered and with maga-isia gloves can be cleaned with maga-isia placed between two layers of paper and in a few days, when the powder is removed they will look like new. Cloves should be laid by in brown paper; white paper often discolors them through the materials used in making the paper.

Petal Parasol

How to Clean Gloves.

In the evening one sees the most sentational dresses—such, for instance, as the one worn by Madanne Edmond de Pourtales; made of black velvet, having pretty diamond clasps fastening the sleeves all the way up the arm and along the side seams of the dresses.

Somother hands and some gown, worn by Madanne Edmond de Pourtales; made of black velvet be and kindred gloves are best restored to the one worn by Madanne Edmond de Pourtales; made of black velvet be one worn by Madanne Edmond de Pourtales; made of black velvet be and kindred gloves are best restored to the one worn by Madanne Edmond de Pourtales; made of black velvet having pretty diamond clasps fastening the side seams of the dresses—such, for instance, as the one worn by Madanne Edmond delays fastening the one worn by Madanne Edmond delays fastening the solve with maga-isia provide delays in the one worn by Madanne Edmond delays fasten

It is ruifly.

It is ruifly.

It is all petals.

The petals overlag

It cost ten dollars.

Each petal is of silk.

It looks like a huge flower.

It may be had in white and tints.

Beauties of this novelty have bloome

a Chestnut street window.

room, have secured the most novel features.

Charlotte Cordays are looked upon as providing a charming frame to children's faces, the soft, frilly border being far better adapted to the little folk than it is to their elders. The prettiest of the "Charlottes" for children are designed with very soft mob-cap crowns of the most amenable straw bleached a pure white with a double frill of snowy lawn edged with lace to take the place of a brim. These hats are trimmed in the simplest manner possible with little market bunches of tiny flowers, such as pimpernels, forgetme-nots and crimson-tipped daisy buds, and a rope of soft white satin ribbon, the bunches of flowers being dotted round the crown.

soft white satin ribbon, the bunches of flowers being dotted round the crown. Another delightful innovation in the matter of children's headgear is the introduction of wild wood strawberries as trimming. These are specially charming in conjunction with the little mushroom hats of burnt or rustic straw, the strawberries forming a thick ruche round the hat, while a soft cap of lace is the invariable accompaniment. Strings tied under the chin are once again high in favor, and are usually carried out in very wide, soft ribbon or in chiffion or ninon, the strings passing right over the crown of the hat instead of merely starting from citter side. the strings passing right over the crown of the hat instead of merely starting Hat Beauty.

It fascinates. It fascinates.
Plumes are superb.
Blossoms are massed.
All sorts of ribbons are seen.
One beautiful hat is not large.
Most of the dress hats are large, hower. In many cases the brim is broader at Some brims droop somewhat at the back and toward the right.

FASHIONS FROM CITY OF MODES.

Footwear Seen at the Races. Gaiters and Boots. Buckled Shoes.

Paris, April 24.—The last few meetings at Auteuil, by the way, were dulled by the bad weather, except on Sunday, the last afternoon, when the sun actually shone in honor of the first day of spring. There were a few dresses to be seen whose owners had laid aside their wraps shone in honor of the first day of spring.

There were a few dresses to be seen whose owners had laid aside their wraps and it was certainly not a day too soon.

Pretty boots with gaiters are the favorite style just now, although lace-up shoes in varnished leather or shoes with not you have a mean Disposition! Wouldatel buckles are far more elegant to my and aroma.

"See the Funny Young Man. What is he Wearing?" "That is a Monocle, my Child." "And why does he wear only One Glass:" "Gee but you have a mean Disposition! Wouldantel buckles are far more elegant to my or cashmere. Thus one single stroke of ribbon defines the slanting lines from one angle of a diamond or vandyke to another in such a way as to dispense the raised effect of the ribbon, say white on peaceck blue, is very noticeable, while in the ordinary way the facy stitches would be almost invisible.

With?"—Cleveland Leader

For finer work the coiling and fixing stitchery will certainly be retained; otherwise the catchet of this negatiar otherwise the catchet of this negatiar. One requires some little covering to previously be entirely lost.

How to Clean Gloves.

cock's feathers; the effect was truly magnificent.

Madame Letellier was most originally dressed in soft black settin, with a long dull blue satin scarf tied at the back and fixed to the skirt with two kir motifs in jet. Madame Coragioni d'Orelli; in white, had splendid embroidery in gold and strass over her bodice and skirt.

Lingerie Hats for Children.

Beauties of this novelty have bloomed in a Chestnut street window.

The ruffles, which are really scalloped, are richly buttonholed, and the whole is charming.

HATS FOR WEE MAIDS.

Charlotte Cordays Usually Becoming—Wild Strawberries.

But it is chiefly in the realm of head gear that the small nursery tots, as well as the younger faction in the school room, have secured the most novel features.

Charlotte Cordays are looked upon the cord and the crown and tied in a prim looking bow (with short ends) in the back. These served as a background for a bowknot pelpe just rosebuds. It was simple, but so Frenchy.

Patent Puffer.

An invention that balas are looked upon the cord in page pink rosebuds. It was simple, but so Frenchy.

sired, but it is just as cheap in the end to buy the larger quantities and put it away in closed jars, only filling three or four bags at a time.

The bags must be lightly stuffed, but must be no larger than an ordinary face cloth when wet and crumpled in the

Make Work Recreation.

One of our modern philosophers advises us to "play at our work" to improve the disposition and expression. This does not necessarily mean to detract from the dignity of work, but rather to do it in such a way as to get the most out of it and to have plenty of reserve force left over.

It also means to do our work in such a way that it becomes a pleasure and not an irksome duty.

Do not attack your, work in the light of a disagreeable task, but rather sing at it to keep up your spirits and to make you feel cheerful and pleasant toward the entire world.

Fresh from the gardens of the finest

Fresh from the gardens of the finest tea-compounding country in the world (the Island of Ceylon). "Salada" Tea is sold only in sealed lead packets, thus preserving its delicious flavor and aroma.

Walking suit of white serge with shawl collar of black cross grain. Hat of white chip trimmed with black wings and wreath of