BUFFALO BLAZE.

Score of Buildings Burned and Man

Terribly Injured. Buffalo, June 2 .- Fire which broke our the Switzers' bakery at East Aurora early to-day consumed a score of resilences and business places before the flames were checked. Morris Graff, a baker, was terribly burned and may die. The family of William Tackaberry, who lived over the bakery, barely escaped with their lives.

Among the buildings destroyed was the Opera House, the Model Pharmacy and the Tackaberry building, in which was located the lodge room of the Odd-fellows. The loss is estimated at $100,000, of which the insurance is only about one-half.

MAY COURT CLUB MAGAZINE Among the many good works instituted by Lady Aberdeen when she was presiding at Rideau Hall was the organizing of a hundred young ladies into a May Court Club, with Miss Ethel Hamilton, daughter of the Bishop of Ottawa, ton, anugiter of the bisnop of Ottawa, as its May Queen. What was then a sort of revival of—an old country May pole has become an organization with many activities, all tending to the betterment of the people at large. In addition to its literary work, it engages in tion to its literary work, it engages in work in connection with the hospitals and other public charities, visits the poor and needy, and has recently added an Anti Tuberculosis Association. Lady Sybil Grey was president for one term, and Miss Alice Fitzpatrick is the present president. With a view to encourage the growth of the club and make its work better known, the members have the "May Court Club Magazine," a handsome magazine of a hundred pages for the "May Court Club Magazine," a handsome magazine of a hundred pages for this month. The articles are well written, one or two of them being in French.
Duncan Campbell Scott has a story entitled "The Winning of Marie Louise," which is worth reading. The magazine has for one of its objects to "revive the almost lost art of writing amongst Canadian girls," and it is hoped that the contributors in future will be largely girls.
The Times cannot speak too highly of the May Court Club, its work and its aims, and if future issues of the magazine are as good as the June one it should be a success.

Stocks and Bonds

New York, June 2.—Noon letter.—The market during the morning recorded further notable advances with marked increase in volume of business. London sold on balance foe profits. There was some influential buying as in Reading but on the whole there did not appear to be much stock in proportion to what would normally appear after so sharp a rise. It is rumored that the Moore following and certain other houses unloaded unexpectedly when prices were last at this level, causing the recent break, but those behind the market are said to not contempiate an advance for the presnot contemplate an advance for the present. Some long stocks seemed to be for sale at 39 for Steel common. The bull party have had last of heavy profits and are strengthening their position as prices work higher.

MARKETS 34 and FINANCE

Tuesday, June 2.—To-day's fine weather did not effect the market a great deal, there being only a few butchers and market gardeners in. Potatoes are becoming more plentiful, but the price has not gone down yet, although the demand was not large. There were no startling changes in any part of the market, the supply being rather small and only a fair demand for what was offered.
