HAINS TRIAL NEARING END.

Testimony in and Attorneys Will Sum Up on Monday.

Flushing, L. I., May 6.-After a breathing spell of one day—Sunday— The Hains trial will reach the beginning of the end. On Monday both sides ill sum up, and unless some unforeseen delay arises, Justice Garretson will charge the jury on Tuesday morning. Thereafter the fate of Capta'n Peter Hains, jun., will be in the hands twelve men.

Three hours will be allowed each side for the final appeal to the jury. John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the defence, announces that he will utilize every minute of the time for his speech, but it is expected that District Attorney Dewitt will not take so long. Requests to charge the jury will be filed to-morrow.

As the trial nears its end, both prose As the trial nears its end, both prose-untion and defence profess confidence as o the outcome. District. Attorney De-sitt said that he could not see "any ther result but a verdict of guilty as harged in the indictment." Mr. Mc-Intyre Eugene Young and Daniel O'Reilly, counsel for the defence, say they feel sure of their client's acquit-tal.

The proceedings ended abruptly today at the end of the cross-examination of the state's last alienist, Dr. George V. Foster, of New York. The district attorney had said earlier in the day that he had several more witnesses to call in rebuttal and that they would follow the alienists on the stand. But, failing to reach some of the desired witnesses in time, the district attorney decided to rest the people's case with the testimony of alienists. Mr. McIntyre had hinted at calling witnesses in surrebutal, to reveal a rumored scandal in army circles, in the hope of showing a strong prejudice against the Hains family in the minds of some arms.

hinted at calling witnesses in surrebutal, to reveal a rumored scandal in army circles, in the hope of showing a strong prejudice against the Hains family in the minds of some army officers who testified for the prosecution. This move, however, did not materialize.

Most of the day's session was taken up with the testimony of the state's three insanity experts. They all expressed the opinion, predicated on the hypothetical question prepared by the prosecution, that Captain Hains was sain at the time he shot Annis. Mr. McIntyre cross-examined the opposing alienists at length, and he succeeded in the defence's hypothetical question from each or of them that the facts as set forth in the defence's hypothetical question included symptoms of cutte mainia in the appearance and actions of the defendant at the time of the shooting. They were, nevertheless, firm in the opinion that the defendant was sane when he committed the murder.

The belief prevails that if Hains is acquitted on the ground of insanity, the court will order a lunacy commission to inquire into his present mental condition. The prisoner has sat the troughout.
