A Letter from Sebastopol.

We have been favored by Sorgeant McKinnon with the following letter from his Son in Law Sorgeant Billings of the 38th Regiment, now before Sebastopol. The letter is of very recent date and coming from a person who was well as the property of the second date and coming from a person who was well as the property of the second date and coming from a person who was well as the property of the second date and coming from a person who was well as the property of the second date and coming from a person who was well as the property of the second date and coming from a person who was well as the second date and coming from a person who was well as the second date and coming from a person who was well as the second date and coming from the first Campbellow of the second date and coming from the first Campbellow of the second date and th Russian General word to send out the women and children, but he would not, so they will have to take their chance when the place falls, it is nothing but a ruin, their houses are tumbled about, day and night we give them no rest; the country supplies us with nothing, all we get is from the shipping; we, have lost half the horses of the army for want of forage. Our ration consists of 1lb of biscuit, 1lb of pork, los of green coffee, 130s of sugar, and 1 gill of rum per day. We used to stop 24 hours in the trenches at a spell, but the weather has become so cold, we relieve every twelve hours; the duty is tarrible hard; it is raining the last 16 days, hen, you return from the trenches driperous have nothing but the wet earth, we to blanket and uncoded rations to look to; only for the rum we would die; as it is, the new Regiments from England are dying by scores, yo die of cramp from the cold in the trenches die very scarce, we burned all the houses and is very scarce, we burned all the houses of that they creep into the cutskirts of the cot wood, sometimes they are caucht other times they get clear off with all sudget, pictures, chairs, tables, clothes, have seen a fellow who got into a with a load of physic when he we less, another broughts large imself with, for weeks I have seen a fellow who got into a with a load of physic when he we less, another broughts large imself with, for weeks I have set, and it is monthe since I will have the day, that Mary and I parents of these boys and young men may not be aware of the extent of their legal liabilities under the circumstances, I have thought it as well to request the favor of your giving publicity, (through your Gazette) of that portion of the Statute which applies to them, in the hope, that by this timely admonition, they may be aved the painful alternative of being called upon to answer for the consequences of any such future violation of the Statute.

January 30, 1855. (For Haszard's Gazette.) MR. DONALD MCPHEE;

Mr. Donald McPher;

Sir,—You are, I am aware, no longer a Preventive Officer, but you no doubt will be able to give some account of the different seisures which have from time to time been made, since you were appointed to that office. I am an importer and have been obliged to pay my duties and should like others to do the same; but I fear that many of the different parties whose goods have been seized have not for some time past been obliged to forfeit their illicit importations. Perhaps you can throw some light on this matter, by so doing you will oblige,

Yours,

Charlottetown, 30th January, 1855.
