Notice to Creditors

IN THE MATTER of the Estate of HOWARD HODGKINS of the city of St. Catharines in the County of Lincoln, Contractor, Insolvent.

NOTICE is hereby given that the above named Howard Hodgkins, carrying on the business of a contractor, in the said city of St. Catharines, has made an assignment under the R.S.O. 1914 chapter 134, of all his estate, credits and effects to Henry O'Loughlin of the city of St. Catharines in the County of Lincoln, sheriff of the said County, for the general benefit of his creditors.

A meeting of creditors will be held at the office of the Assignee in the Court House in the city of St. Catharines on Friday the thirteenth day of February 1920 at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, to receive a statement of affairs, to appoint inspectors and for the ordering of the affairs of the estate generally.

And notice is further given that after the thirteenth day of February 1920 the Assignee will proceed to distribute the assets of the estate amongst the persons entitled thereto having regard only to the claims of which notice shall then have been given, and that he will not be liable for the assets or any claims he shall not then have had notice.

A very large number of friends attended the funeral of Ethel May Dresdel, yesterday from the residence of her parents, Grantham, to Victoria Lawn Cemetery. Rev. McKenzie Naughton officiated. Robert Dawson, Laurence Hutchinson, Frank Stewart Robert Secord, Henry Secord and C. Knox were the bearers.

The firemen were called out this morning to 87 Queen street, where the water pipes having burst, the water had run over the upstairs floor flooding everything and causing part of the dining room ceiling to come down. The house is owned by Chas. Weistead of Toronto and is occupied by Howard McNulty, he having just recently moved in.

The Committee appointed to investigate the complaints as to the management of the Children's Aid Shelter will sit tonight in the court house and take evidence. The matron and Agent Boyle will be questioned. Inability to get the proper kind of help is at the bottom of the trouble. The matron has been there with the assistance of only one Indian girl and having as many as 35 children, many of them babies to look after. It has been a colossal task.

Passchendale Fight Kept Up Army Morale

General Currie Says It's Most Misunderstood Battle of the War.

MONTREAL, Feb. 3.—General Sir Arthur Currie, Inspector-General of Canadian Militia, speaking before the Returned Soldiers' Association of McGill University here Saturday night, stated that the battle of Passchendale was the most misunderstood battle of the whole war, since it had resulted in such heavy casualties with apparently small results in territory gained. The fact was, he said, that after the frightful losses of the French in their disastrous offensive at the Aisne, the French army morale was badly shaken, and the British offensive had been organized to restore the whole morale of the Allies, thus leading to the attack on, and capture of Passchendale, carried out by the Canadians. It was the culminating event of that severe period of the war, and had prepared the way to the series of movements which later had led to the final and conclusive victory.

General Currie said that Canada must be prepared to meet future problems of defense, and to that end "I am determined that ever yunit of Canada shall be perpetuated in the Canadian Militia."

An Old Recipe To Darken Hair

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked, or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You'll get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy, and you look years younger.

Chief Commissioner Carvell of the Railway Board has given a ruling restricting greatly the use of telephone, telegraph, and express franks.

We are specialists in Crown and Bridge Work, which is a branch of Dentistry that very often does away with the necessity of extracting teeth.

As an example, let us explain that it often happens that broken down or badly decayed teeth still remain sufficiently sound in the roots to permit a firm foundation for crown work or a secure anchorage for bridge work.

In some cases we are able to provide a complete bridge under conditions which when treated in an ordinary way would demand a plate.

This work is under the care of four of the leading specialists in New York State and the charges for their skilled services are reasonable to an unsurpassed degree. Crown work at only $5 a tooth is an example of our low charges.

Why not take advantage of our free examination service and determine what attention your teeth require?

THE INVESTIGATION SHELTER SOCIETY of Help and Not Enough Accommodation, but Things Have Wonderfully Improved, With Even Better Prospects For the Future.

County Council committee named to investigate the Children's Aid Shelter complaints held a session in Grand Jury Room last night.

President Claus and other members of the Children's Aid Society were present, including Mrs. J. S. Campbell, Mrs. C. M. Gibson, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Herbert Moyer, D.C. Hethington, E. Poole, C.M. Gibson, Mrs. Hethington, Mrs. D.C. Hethington, Mrs. Culp, Mrs. C. H. Hethington, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. C. Taylor, Mrs. Johnston Clench and others.

The members of the County Council Committee were Reeve Richardson, chairman; Reeve Mitchell, Deputy Reeve Revett, Niagara, Deputy Reeve Haynes, Grand

The evidence showed that while the Children's Aid Society has gone through much trial and tribulation in conducting the shelter, the untiring energy of noble women of the city doing the only thing that saved its collapse, splendid things have been accomplished and that when the improvements and enlargements to the building are completed, even better things will come in the future.

Mr. H. Claus at 8.20 arose and announced that there had been some apprehension regarding the call for the meeting. Some charges had been made against the management of the Children's Aid Shelter. The Children's Aid Society had nothing to hide and asked for the investigation.

He felt that it was up to the council to proceed with the investigation. The society was ready to answer the books and answer any questions. But until proven guilty the members wished to be considered innocent, which was all that any one could ask.

Reeve Richardson took the chair and said the criticism had been made of the Children's Shelter, an institution which received a great deal of public money. The committee had seen things at the shelter which they did not approve of.

Mr. Richardson did not consider that he was there as a judge at an investigation. He invited all who had any questions to ask or information to give to come forward.

Mr. Claus reiterated that the committee had been ordered by the council to make an investigation and report. The society was there to answer any questions.

Reeve Revett said the committee would like to know the ones who were responsible for the feeding, clothing and general care of the children.

C. M. Gibson advised taking up the question at a time.

W. J. Westwood said it would be well to hear from the man who made the charges in the county council.

Reeve Mitchell of Grimsby admitted that he was the man. He said he didn't think there was a disposition to blame anyone. He thought the committee would meet the city committee and talk things over.

What he said at the county council meeting he would repeat there. He said he didn't think the Children's Shelter was a credit to the county.

"We admit that," said several ladies. Mr. Mitchell said the committee had considered the building; and the grounds not suitable and they did not think the children were properly clothed or fed. The committee did not think it advisable, perhaps, to spend any more
