NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. SECOND PAGE.

The Mutual Life Insurance Co.. LOCAL NEWS

build a rotary mill above the Government House shortly after the opening of navigation.

KICKED BY A HORSE.-James Harris, a badly hurt.

STEAMER PORTIA ASHORE. - The steamer | The usual salute was fired. Portia grounded at Bermuda on her late trip South. She was floated off without any damage to ship or passengers.

CENT ARIAN.-Mrs. Honora Casey, who live with her daughter, Catherine Higgins, at Marysville, is in hee 101st year. She is well and can read without glasses.

CONTRACT AWARDED .- Joshua Limerick, of this city, has been awarded the contract to build the new house of R. D. Wilmot. M. P., of Belmont. The contract price is in the vicinity of $8,000.

the common council

DONATION .- The Rev. B. H. Thomas, pastor of the Maugerville Baptist church, ac-Europe, there has been, during the present visit this province some time during the knowledges in the Messenger and visitor, a season, more than usual activity in lumber- year. I am satisfied that I express the sentidonation from his church and congregation of a yard full of wood and $25 in cash.

OFFICIAL VISIT. - His Worship Mayor Allen, Alds. McKay, McCready, Moore, Gilman, Esty and Macnutt, paid an official visit to the alms house on Wednesday morning. They found everything in a satisfactory condition.

FROM THE NORTH SHORE.-The Northern & Western management, with its usual enterprise, offered excursion rates from the North Shore to the Capital on the opening of the legislature, and as a consequence a large number came over to see the opening.

FATAL ACCIDENT.-Rial Howe of Oromocto was instantly killed on Tuesday evening by falling from a load of hay and breaking his neck. He was about 40 years of age and at an understanding which would afford Perley witnessed the accident and did not at the same time would not necessitate a deem an inquest necessary.

OFFICERS ELECTED. - At Tuesday afternoon's session of the District Council, R. T. of T., the election of officers resulted as follows: Wm. McFarlane, Dist. C.; Mrs. Dr. Keith, V. C.; J. A. Thompson, Chap.; Fred. White, Sec'y Trea.; Wm. Hallett, Herald; Wm. Bolster, Dept. Herald; Wm. Ogden, Guard; Wm. Lawson, Sentinel.

OPENING OF THE LEGISLATURE. large cuts which they have done with profit. uch a statement in regard to THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR'S SPEECH NEW MILL.-R. K. Jewett of Keswick, will Mr. Wilson's Address in Moving the Reply.

The House of Assembly was opened on genial climate warms a more fertile soil into teamster, hauling ice for Esty & Co., was Thursday afternoon with the usual cere- a greater degree of fruitfulness than nature kicked by a horse Friday morning and quite monies. Lieutenant Governor Sir Leonard bestows upon New Brunswick, and to the Tilley was present, attended by a guard of north of us there may be provinces which nonor from the Royal School of Infantry. their geographical extent and early settlement have a greater command of resources On motion of Mr. Baird, seconded by the and seem destined to leave our province far Attorney General, A. S. White, of King's, behind in the march of improvement, yet, was elected speaker without opposition. sir, I think, taking into consideration the date of settlement of New Brunswick, the The following is the Lieutenant Goveramount of revenue at the disposal of those The Speech.

> Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the people of this province the Legistative Council :--

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly :--

nor's speech

11, M Leary's specifications for the St. John generally throughout the province. The further advances and become one of the here to protect. (Loud applause.) dock were referred to a committee of five to leading pursuits in which our people are most flourishing provinces of this fair Doreport upon, at last Saturday's meeting of engaged, I am happy to say, have been minion. carried on profitably during the past year, and even in the great lumber industry, not-dress, we gather that it is contemplated that ing operations.

ency the governor general will be able to hearty and loyal manner. We will welcome make a visit to the maritime provinces dur- him on account of the ing the present year, and thereby become High and Distinguished Position personally acquainted with this important which he occupies; on account of the conportion of the dominion. Should my exstitutional manner in which he discharges pectations in this regard be realized, I am the duties of that position; on account of well assurred that, as the representative of the effort he appears to have made to become our gracious sovereign, as well as on account acquainted with the resources and people of of his excellency's many estimable personal qualities, he will receive a loyal and hearty ties, and above all on account of the fact that velcome from the people of the province. he is the representative of our Queen whom The sucject of the rate of stumpage imposed we delight to honor, and such will be the enon the licensees of the crown operating on thusiasm of his welcome that, when he reits lumber lands has been much discussed turns to his gubernatorial chair at Ottawa, between my government and the licensees, he will feel satisfied that down in this proand frequent attempts have been made by vince by the sea there is negotiations during the past year to arrive No Feeling in Favor of Annexation leaves a wife and family. Coroner Geo. A. some relief to this important industry, and to the United States; that we are a loyal people; that we glory in the achievement of the empire in any department of human enreduction in the usual grants for necessary public services. You will be fully informed | deavor; and that if ever the time should of the nature of these negotiations, and I come when assistance is required to preserve shall ask you to consider the propriety of ap- the integrity of the empire, New Brunswickpointing a special commission to investigate | ers will not be found wanting. and report upon the whole question of Important indeed, sir, is the subject of the stumpage dues upon the timber lands of the crown lands referred to in the second paragraph of the address, and perhaps the most

I regret to inform you that during the important in the whole range of local polirecess the controversy over the right of prop- tics in this province. What crown lands reerty of the provincial government in the mained when the present government came have been regarded as a source of congratu- made no change. Continued Prosperity of our Province from a source of such high authority ought to strengthen our faith in its resources and in the physical, mental and moral capabilities of its people. The faith is sometimes weakened by the glowing accounts of the apabilities of other lands circulated throughout our country, and by the discontent often The question of the manifested by our people. While it may be Development of the Mining Industry true that to the south and west of us a more province which, with proper machinery and office. who have from time to time conducted its affairs and the resources at their command,

Have Made Advances public business. It affords me great satisfac-and unitedly work for the development of we will faithfully apply ourselves to their tion was whether the jails which required to tion to be able to congratulate you upon the its resources and the improvement of its consideration and unite for the welfare of the be maintained for prisoners put into them ST. JOHN DRY DOCK. - By a vote of 13 to continued prosperous condition of business institutions, New Brunswick will make province whose interests we have been sent under local laws, debtors for instance, should short speech. From the second paragraph of the adwithstanding prices have again declined in the governor general of the dominion will entered into a criticism of the government ments of every hon. member in this house I have some reason to hope that his excel-when I say that he will be received in a stumpage matter he said the House was in tending the various circuits had repeatedly province had been forced to maintain short | him in this matter was a burden that should not be laid upon the province at all. Whatever the govern-into power have been preserved, and under respect. It might be necessary that the W. C. T. U., was fairly well attended, but

case, it is difficult to understand how it could Mr. Stockton-Then the government has lation, for the province would have been the Hon. Mr. Blair-The hon. member is loser to the amount of $30,000 or $40,000. giving evidence of a very early impetuosity. Where the interests of the province are at He should be calm. He should possess his stake, as in this case, it would appear to be soul in patience, and he would get all the reasonable that differences as regards minor information available-perhaps a little more matters would cease and that a united effort information than he desired to get-at all would be made to strengthen the hands of events such information as, when he gets it, the government in efforts to secure her rights. | will cause him to, conclude that very much less would have suited him very much bet-

L

m

D

and the second second

ter. The yearning desire to be leader of his of the province is one which will be regarded | party, was overcoming the hon. member's by all as one of importance. It is gratifying discretion. He should allow the leader to know that there are indications of such whom his party had selected in preference mineral deposits in certain sections of the to him to discharge the functions of that ample capital, can be worked with profit. As to the question of jail accommodation It is to be hoped that the mining industry he would assure the hon. gentlemen opposite will be so developed that it may form a new that the government had not been at all unsource of revenue, which will assist in sup- mindful of the question as to the obligation plying the wants of the great public services developed upon the local government in reand take the place of certain sources which spect to short term prisoners. The dominio must ere long, become depleted. I am sure government, although many years ago urged that any measure that may be proposed by to do so, refused to submit that question to the government for development of this in- the supreme court. They maintained that dustry will receive the hearty approval of there was no obligation to maintain short this house. All the subjects referred to in term prisoners' resting upon them or, in other in all that appertains to a well rounded civil- the address are of importance, and when words, maintaining jails for their confineization, at which no son of New Brunswick they severally come up for the consideration ment. But that matter was entirely outside I have much pleasure in meeting you in legislature convened for the despatch of the claims which our country has upon us introduced, his honor may rest assured that the present question. The present question introduced, his honor may rest assured that the present question introduced is a statisfied.

> not be maintained properly. From Mr. Labillois seconded the address in a motives of humanity, if no other, it was im> portant that these people should be suitably Mr. Hanington, after announcing that he provided while so held under the laws of the country. It was unfortunate that in some counties the jails were not in the condition programme. Some of the proposals he con- they ought to be in. Some of them were curred in; he had not information before not secure, and others were actually unhim concerning others. Referring to the healthy, and to this subject the judges atthe dark as to what the government had called the attention of grand juries, to little really done in negotiations with the North or no purpose. An obligation, therefore, Shore people, but with that expression in rested upon those charged with the governthe speech he thought the appointment of a ment of the country to see that this state of sion, if carried by the House, would affairs was a reproach to the province and simply amount to a subterfuge. The gov- when a formal intimation came ernment simply desired to escape the re- down to us from the minister of justice at sponsibility of saying that they had changed Ottawa, that the governor general had been their policy from $1.25 to $1 stumpage as the country believed they had done. He confined for violation of the law, owing to thought if, instead of getting a reduction of the condition of the jail in which he was stumpage, the members for Restigouche and confined, the time had come when the house Northumberland were satisfied with receiv- should put upon the statute book legislation ing a commission to inquire into what that would remedy the evil. He regretted should be done, they were men whom it that the mention of this subject had brought was very easy to satisfy. He hoped when from the hon. member an expression of the the attorney general addressed the House hope that this was not the entering wedge of he would take them into his confidence and direct taxation. The remark did not seem let them know what conclusion the govern- to be in keeping with the admirable tone of ment had reached. As to the section re the rest of his speech. He should look to the lating to jails, he said the people of this leader of the opposition to co-operate with > termed prisoners in their jails by the action After speeches by Messrs. Alward, Atkinof the Dominion government in not making son, and Stockton, the address was passed. provision for them, but according to the Friday and Saturday were devoted to notices terms of the British North America Act that of motion and routine work.

Public Temperance Meeting. ment proposed he hoped it would not in-volve an admission of our obligation in this Thursday evening, under the auspices of the

A. O. H. ENTERTAINMENT.-The A. O. H. Society will give a concert in St. Dunstan's Hall on Monday, the evening of St. Patrick's day. The programme which has been prepared is an unusually fine one, and those who may attend may rest assured that the society will keep up its well-earned reputation of giving a first-class entertainment.

WHO'S WHO.-What ever it may be, is not an opera, and it ought not to have been adhas been decided by the Supreme Court of vertised as one.. It is a funny jumble of nonscace and singing, with a little dancing, neither of very high order, yet altogether sufficiently amusing to please the majority. There was a large audience on Friday night a larger one than would have been if the public had known the nature of the show.

NARROW ESCAPE. - Miss May Whelpley daughter of G. T. Whelpley, is to be congratulated on a very narrow escape from serious, if not fatal injurie a few days ago. She had just gone into the University having left her horse standing in front of the entrance, when a heavy slide of snow from the roof of the college building crashed into the sleigh smashing it to pieces.

able consideration.

NEW INVENTION .- We understand Harry White, watchmaker and electrician, of this in this direction will be submitted for your approval. Maritime Provinces for a new patent attachment for telephones-a new American invention. Those who have seen its operation pronounce it the best improvement upon the telephone since its introduction here. It is Mr. White's intention, if he receives the encouragement he anticipates, to endeavor to have the American company locate its manufacture for the Canadian market, in this city. We wish him success.

MATRIMONIAL. - The Carleton Sentinel thus notices the marriage of a former University student, Dr. Hand: The house of Dr. and Mrs. Boyd, Linneus, Me., was the scene of a very pleasant event on Tuesday evening of last week, the occasion being the marriage of their only daughter, Linette I. to Dr. W. N. Hand of Woodstock. Rev. C. L. Haskell, Houlton, officiated. Only a few of the immediate relative of the contracting parties were present. The bride was very neatly attired and looked charming, and was kindly remembered by many of her friends. The happy couple reached Woodstock on Thursday, and have taken rooms at the Wilbur.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN THOMPSON.-The death is announced of Capt. Robert G. W. Thompson, while on a voyage from New York to Shanghai on the ship Joseph H. Scammell. Capt. Thompson was a mariner well and favorably known and had sailed in vessels to congratulate you upon a substantial inowned by Messrs. Scammell Bros. for many crease in the revenue for the past year, which years. His wife was Miss Jennie Evans, has enabled the department of public works daughter of the late Benjamin Evans of to meet some very urgent demands for the Cardigan. They had been married but a short | construction of additional bridges of a pertime. The blow to Mrs. Thompson, alone | manent character. among strangers in mid-ocean must have been severe, and will elicit the sympathy of and expenditure for the past year, as well as her many friends throughout the county. a statement of the receipts and payments of The body of the Captain was buried at sea. the current year up to the opening of the Word has been received by Mrs. Thompson's present session, to be laid before you. friends that she will sail for home by the first steamer

Another Absconder Wanted.

Police Magistrate Marsh received from Louisville, Ky., yesterday a postal card con- the requirements of the public service. H. Pope, late teller of the Louisville City National Bank, who absconded the other Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of day with $80,000 of money and is believed to have come to Canada. According to the description, Pope is about 35 years old, 5 ft 11 inches high, black hair and moustache, wears have the fullest confidence that you will disspectacles, left eye smaller than right, walks play the utmost loyalty and zeal in the pubwith quick long step, slimly built, weighs lic service, and I trust that under the Divine 155 pounds, slim long foot, has a habit of guidance your labors may materially ad spreading his feet wide apart when standing vance the welfare of our people and strength-the regulations adopted, with the approval granted crown lands, has been reopened by of a majority of the members of this house, the general government. Communications between my government and that of the the territorial revenue has been gradually increased. That increase it has been claim. Dominion have taken place upon this subed, has been at the expense of the lumber ject, and I have given directions that the same shall be laid before you. business of the province, and it has also been The claim of the province upon the luquiclaimed that if other and less stringent regulations had been adopted the territorial dators of the Maritime Bank to be paid in revenue would have been equally as large preference to other simple contract crediand tors, by virtue of prerogative of the crown.

Our Struggling Lumbermen

would have been materially assisted in their Canada substantially in accordance with the operations. These views have been constantontention of my government, and, unless ly and persistently urged upon the considthe case is carried by the bank on appeal to eration of the members of the government the privy council, I have reason to believe and of this house, by the representatives of the claim will be paid at an early day. the lumbermen, and the hope has been fre-

The important act passed at the last ses quently expressed by a large number of the sion of the legislature, in amendment of the government supporters in this house, whenelectoral law, having gone into operation, ever the question of the policy of the govthe experience of its working during the ernment in regard to the crown lands was ecent elections has suggested some minor under consideration, that the government changes, to which I shall invite your favorwould soon see its way clear to relieve the imbermen, to some extent, of the burdens Public attention has been recently at which the government regulations imposed. tracted to the question of the mineral capa-

From the reference this section made it is bilities of the province by the reported disfairly to be assumed that the government, covery of considerable deposits of silver and other valuable ores in several sections of urged by these considerations, have deemed it advisable to make the whole question of the province. Proposals with a view to our crown lands and the territorial revenue a subject of inquiry, with a view of obtaining the most exhaustive and reliable information in regard thereto, in order that A wise and Equitable Policy

several counties of the province have been may be adopted in regard thereto. I venture laid before me, and I have regretted to learn to assert, sir, that a majority of the members that in one case his excellency the governor of this honorable house will regard such a general has felt it his duty to order the discharge of a prisoner, owing to the unhealthy condition of the building in which he was the information obtained, to leave in the confined. You will be asked to adopt such hands of the present executive the control, measures as shall make it obligatory upon made, the adoption of which will mitigate all municipalities to provide secure and proper accommodations in their respective against the best interests of the province specially when we are informed that no re-It has recently become apparent that the duction will be made in the usual grants for beople of New Brunswick are being outthe necessary public services. stripped by some of the sister provinces in I think, sir, all will agree that it is a mat ter of regret that the government have found respect to the relative extent and quality of its dairy products. More interest and attenit necessary to call the attention of the house tion, it is thought, might with advantage be to another attempt on the part of the do-

directed to this industry, and in the hope of minion government to promoting, in some degree, this important object, a measure will be laid before you. to which I invite your favorable considera My government has it in contemplation to discontinue the maintenance of the provincial stock farm at the expiration of the current year. I hope this proposal may commend itself to your approval. Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Complaints respecting the unsafe and unhealthy condition of the county jails in Assembly :--It affords me much satisfaction to be able

I have directed the accounts of the incon Estimates of the probable income and ex penditure for the current year will be sub mitted to you, and I think you will find that the estimates and expenditures have been prepared with a due regard to economy and taining a description and portrait of William Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council :-

Assembly :-

In your deliberations upon the variou subjects which may engage your attention 1 the present time if it was now being maintained upon a proper basis. Mr. Hanington contended that a deputation of the government having gone to Ottawa in reference to the claim for interest on eastern extension, he thought the government might financial standpoint. give the people of the country information as to the state of those negotiations. Then there was the question of the legislative council, which he was surprised to see omitted from the address. Personally, he had no fault to find with Mr. McLellan's appointment to the upper house, but he tive council he should have told the house what that policy was and whether he in- answer to the charge. tended to submit a measure before the house on that subject or not. Hon. Mr. Blair said he would ask the house to permit him to make a few observations which seemed called for by the remarks that had fallen from the leader of the opposition. Before doing so he desired, in a hearty and cordial way indeed, to welcome the hon. members who were here for the first time and extended his congratulations to them upon being here, as well as to those who had occupied seats in the house in former sessions. He was satisfied that hon. members were disposed to preserve the traditions that had made the house in the past eminently respected. The house, in the past, had been able to carry on, sometimes, very heated discussions in a spirit that would not reflect discredit upon any legislacourse as advisable, and in the meantime ture in the world. He warmly reciprocated will feel disposed, until inquiry is made and the wishes of the hon. member who had last spoken in this regard. There would be a disposition on the part of all hon. members and feel satisfied that no regulation will be to make allowances for each other for what might be said in the heat of debate. He was prepared to receive hard blows from his friends opposite, and they should be prepared to receive hard blows in return, but outside of the housethey should be ready to meet each other in a genial and agreeable way. This had been the record of past years and he would be much disappointed if the present house was found to be an exception to the rule. The house, he thought, Interfere with our Provincial Rights. should be more than pleased with the ad-It might reasonably be supposed that, in con- mirable addresses made by the mover and seconder of the address. It was but rarely sequence of the numerous decisions of the highest tribunals in our land in favor of the that he had listened to addresses on such SEED BUCKWHEAT, SEED WHEAT, right of the local legislatures of the domin- occasions that had given such evidences of ion to control the inland fisheries thereof, ability. It was a matter of congratulation that no further attempt would have been that the house possessed among its members, made to interfere with that control but, sir, gentlemen who could put their views before the general fishery regulations recently ap- the house in the exceedingly agreeable and proved of by his excellency the governor pleasant manner that these gentlemen had zeneral in council, under the authority of done, and he warmly congratulated the the fisheries act, chap. 95 of the revised house and them upon the speeches they had statutes of Canada, show conclusively that made. It would be expected that he should the central authority in this dominion does devote some attention to the remarks of the still claim the right to control the inland fish- hon. gentleman who had just sat down. eries of this province to a certain extent. This would not be the first time that they According to these regulations parts of the had crossed blades in the house. He wished rivers Restigouche, Jacquet, Charlo, Upsal- to express to the opposition his pleasure at quitch and Patapedia, are to be set apart for the excellent selection they had made of a natural or artificial propagation of fish, the leader. It was an exceedingly judicious result of which regulations will be that one. He was glad to know that the rivalries riparian owners, so long as these regulations and heart-burnings in the opposition had not produced results of a calamitous character, and that the gentlemen in their midst, who felt that they had strong claims for priority, had agreeably fallen under the banner of his hon. friend from Westmorland. He was satisfied that the selection they had made was a much more judicious one than if they had selected a captain from among the gentlemen from St. John, who, in the nature of things, could hardly expect to be very well adapted to leading a party in this large amount of rental received from the let-stock farm should now be abolished, but he not so well as its merits demanded, Sir would oppose the abolition of the farm at Leonard Tilley presided. Excellent music was furnished by a choir of ladies and gentlemen. After a few introductory remarks His Honor introduced Dr. Silas Alward, M. P. P., who gave a very fine address, TELEPHONE 97. showing the evils of the liquor traffic from a

H. A. McKeown, M. P. P., was next called on. He made a very effective address, urging prohibition

Wm. Wilson, M. P. P., was next introduced. Among other things he spoke of the rum in the recent election and denied that the government committee of management thought if the leader of the government had had anything to do with it. He thought his a definite policy with respect to the legisla- being invited to take part in the meeting by the ladies of the W. C, T. U., was a sufficient

His Honor delivered the closing address. Acknowledgements.

Subscriptions to THE HEBALD during week ending March 15th, 1890, from following parties are hereby acknowledged : Thomas Goodspeed, Peniac, York County

$1.00 Peter Haining, Fredericton, $1.00. DEATHS.

Suddenly. in Sti John on the 8th inst., of heart disease, Isaac B. Tower, in the 43rd year of his age, leaving a wife and seven children six daughters and one son, to mourn their

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. NOTICE. ALWAYS IN STOCK: HAY, OATS, STRAW, BRAN, SHORTS.

MIDDLINGS, CRACKED CORN, COTTON SEED AND OIL CAKE MEAL, LIME. LAND AND CALCINED PLASTER.

Hard and Soft House Coal. Old Mine Sydney and Grand Lake Blacksmith Coal.

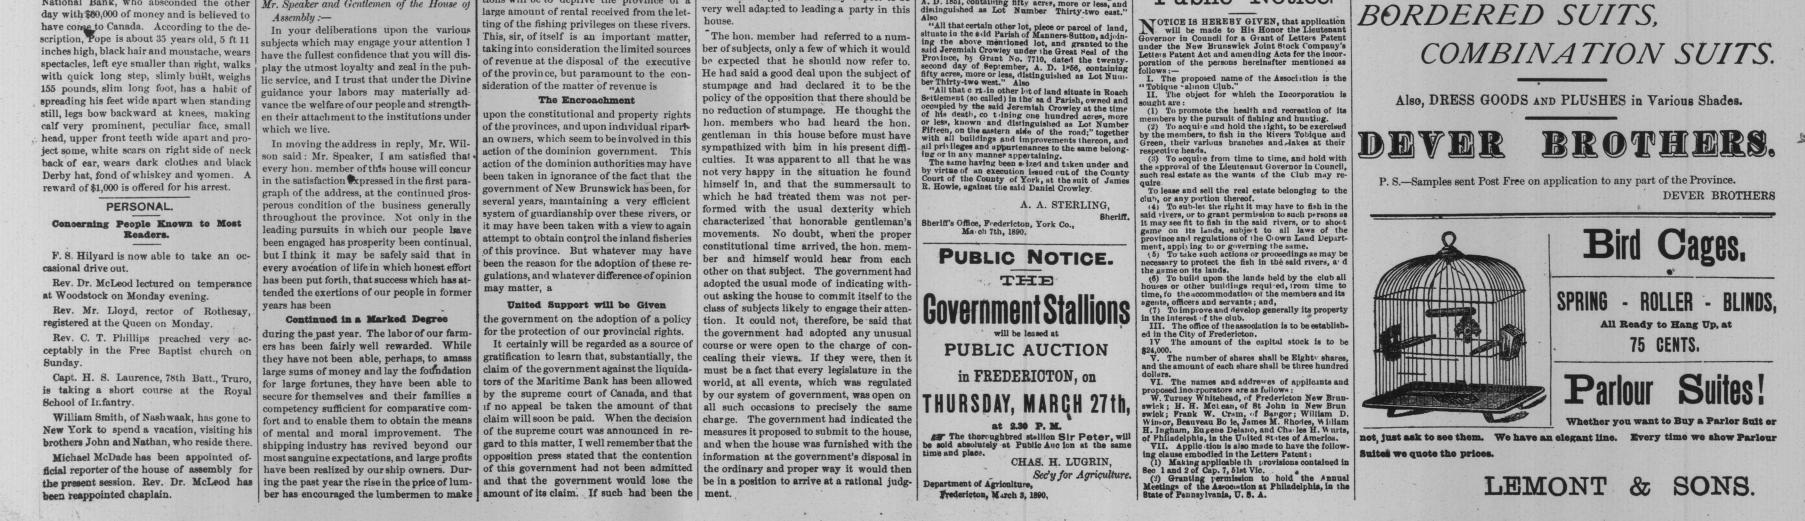

OATS. 11 PEAS. 66-BARLEY. CORN.

ALSO, CLOVER AND TIMOTHY SEED, all CHEAPER than the CHEAPEST.

Office and Warehouse : Campbell St., above City Hall. JAS. TIBBITS.

Sheriff's Sale. THERE will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, in front of the County Court House, in the City f Fredericton, York County, on Thursday, the tweifth day of June next, between the hours of twelve o'clock, acon, and five o'clock in

The hours of twelve o clock, noon, and nive o clock in the afternoon. All the right, title, inte est, property, claim and demand whatsoever, either at law or in equity, which Bandel Crowley had on the 19th day of March, A. D. 1868, in and to "All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, situate, b) ing and being in the Parish of Manners-Sutton aforesaid (formerly Kingselear) granted to one Jeremiah Crowley under the Great Seai of the Province of New Brunswick, b) Grant No. 4847, dated the fourth day of August, A. D. 1851, containing fifty acres, more or less, and distinguished as Lot Number Thirty-two east." Also are maintained in force, would be Excluded from Using the Rivers for fishing purposes themselves or sub-letting them to others. As the crown, represented by the government of the province, is a large riparian owner in respect of ungranted crown lands lying upon these rivers, the province is directly and seriously effected by the regulations. The effects of these regulations will be to deprive the province of a