the Southern States. Under this system a handful of men in each Southern State have dictated Federal appointments because of political service. This method of distributing Federal patronage is to be done away with, and in its place are to be substituted clubs in the South, made up of the best business and professional men, who necessarily will be recruited largely from Democrats, who constitute the great majority of the professions in the Southern States. The members of these clubs will be the men to whom Mr. Taft will refer nominees for Federal positions. It is expected that all Southerners interested in government by Federal officers of standing will cooperate with the Administration and that in this way will be a sort of entering wedge which eventually will split up the "Solid South," with the result that Southern voters will cast their ballots as their individual judgment dictates, and not as a solid mass voting for one political party, no matter what may be the platform or the candidates it presents to the South.

The Administration which has just begun its official life has opportunities for doing much for the welfare of the country. Businessmen awaiting the final adjustment of the tariff before entering upon new enterprises. If that adjustment should prove to be of a character which will secure permanency for tariff rates for years to come, confidence will be revived and as a national result prosperity will follow in its wake. Such is the prospect that opens up before the new Administration.

Dominion Parliament.

The past week saw more important matters discussed in the house of commons, and the record of the present session in regard to work of an effective kind was kept up from Monday until the last of the sittings. For the first time, perhaps, since the discovery of silver in the newer sections of Ontario, the Dominion house was brought into verbal conflict regarding a dispute concerning mining matters and legislation. The now celebrated legal battle between the Florence Mining company and the capitalists and investors who acquired the Cobalt Lake silver proposition was revived, or rather introduced, by Mr. Clarke, of South Essex, who reviewed the case from the standpoint of the Florence claimants, notwithstanding that the Ontario government had disallowed the contention that that company had a prior right to the property. This decision was supported by the minister of justice inasmuch as he advised the government not to disallow the judgment of the Ontario courts in favor of the Cobalt Lake company. Much partisan bitterness characterized a useless discussion, Hon. Mr. Aylesworth rather ineffectually assailing the Ontario government for not deciding otherwise than it did in the matter.

The ever present question of telephone rates and service in Canada was once more brought forward by the resolution, on Monday, of Mr. Houghton Lennox, in which the government was urged to initiate measures to remove alleged long existing abuses in respect to the charges and system in vogue in this country. The honorable member was impressed with the fact that Canadians were paying altogether too much for the privilege of talking over the wires. From reports he estimated this excess to be in the vicinity of 100 p. c. as compared to other countries. Mr. Lennox intimated that notice of his motion had stirred up the companies, and the latter were being requested by the government to submit their tariffs

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are: uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching. I have been troubled with dyspepsia for years, and tried every remedy I could get my hands on. I never got anything that gave me relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. I cannot praise this medicine too highly for the good it has done me. I always take it in the morning and fall and would not be without it. W. A. HOSMER, Belleville, Ont.

to the railway commission. Referring to the independent phone movement, the speaker declared that Indians, since the breaking of telephone monopoly in that state, now possessed 30,000 installations or one in every 16 of the population. In Canada the proportion was one phone to 65 of population, and even lower in Ontario. Independent telephone services were, as a rule, miserably bad, and there could be no fair comparison of prices between these systems and that in vogue in Canada. The action of the government in recently placing the jurisdiction of the rates within the jurisdiction of the railway commission assured ample protection to the public. Mr. Maclean moved an amendment to Mr. Lennox's motion approving of the government's action in thus regulating rates, or providing for their regulation. After some warm remarks by Messrs. Carvell and Burrell, the latter supporting the original motion, and the former moving the adjournment of the debate to permit further discussion, the vote standing 101 to 47 in favor of Mr. Carvell's motion. The debate is one that will undoubtedly be followed with much interest in the country as, with the increase in the population and the filling up of vast new territories in the West particularly, a cheap and yet efficient system of inter communication by wire becomes imperative. Whether such will be attained by government regulation, or by the nationalization of phones is a problem that will bear the most careful investigation at the hands of the country's legislators.

On motion to go into supply, Mr. Taylor brought up a matter that has caused much criticism, of a particularly unpleasant nature, of a feature of Canadian law that has always been a matter of pride to citizens of the Dominion, regardless of political affiliations—the adequate punishment of criminals convicted, after fair trial, of serious offenses, against the peace or welfare of the community. Unfortunately the circumstances surrounding the escape of the notorious desperado, Bill Miner, from New Westminster penitentiary, throw a shadow upon the administration of justice that grows

Mr. Houghton Lennox on Wednesday elicited the interesting information from the minister of railways and canals that at present there are some 15,000 level railway crossings in Canada. The average expense of installing gates at these danger points would reach $700. The average upkeep per gate day and night annually, would total about $1,200. In view of the number of unavoidable accidents that are recorded annually, it would appear as though the crossings at least in densely populated communities, should be protected in some manner. The question is, however, receiving the attention of the railway commission, and a solution of the real problem—that of the expense connected with the making safe of the crossings, will be generally welcomed.

An important announcement by Sir Wilfrid Laurier was made on Thursday when the prime minister outlined the idea of the proposed new department of foreign relations. According to the explanation of the secretary of state, the necessity of such a department to deal with external affairs has now become apparent. The long standing fisheries dispute regarding the Atlantic deep sea rights, the question of internal fisheries, and the settlement of land and water boundaries between this country and the United States were advanced as examples of the work which properly should fall under the jurisdiction of such a department as proposed. Mr. Foster pointed out that such an idea, while theoretically attractive, would prove cumbersome and expensive. The exfinance minister considered that no new matters had arisen to make such a departure necessary, and that the previous council, as in the past, was capable of handling all questions emanating from foreign sources. Dr. Sproule made the somewhat pertinent observation that the United States got along very well with six departments, and that fourteen as at present should prove sufficient for Canada. The chief objection to the new department seems to be concisely summed up in this observation: On Friday afternoon Hon. Mr. Graham made the statement that the Georgian-Bay canal scheme, which it was hoped, the government would see its way clear to undertake, would have to be in the future. The minister was careful to explain that he was not antagonistic to the proposed waterway, but the decided preference of the head of the department for the deepening of the Welland canal as an alternate measure seems to have become more pronounced. The advantages of the Georgian Bay route both from a financial and national viewpoint are undisputed, but the minister is apparently unable to see his way clear to endorsing the route, so important to Ottawa and a very large section of the country, in terms any stronger than those he has expressed for some months back. It is also possible that the Waterways treaty, the exact text of which is anxiously awaited by parliament, will be given the "house" shortly. In reply to Mr. Borden, Sir Wilfrid volunteered the information that an imperial despatch on the matter would be ready today. The publication of the treaty terms will definitely settle a controversy that is beginning to assume considerable magnitude in the public press. It may also furnish an argument for the establishment of the proposed department of foreign affairs although in the best interests of the country it is to be hoped that result will not be one of the immediate results of the publication of the terms, with all that it implies.

Prince Rupert—British Columbia.

In response to many enquiries from all parts of the world with regard to the new Pacific Coast terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, Prince Rupert, a comprehensive and interesting pamphlet has been issued giving information regarding this great seaport of the Pacific. The land acquired by the Railway Company for this new city is 24,000 acres for the purpose of the townsite and the development of the port. The first division of the townsite will cover an area of about 2,000 acres, and will be opened to the public and sold by or about May 1st, 1909. The publication contains a general plan of the new townsite and a large interesting map of the North Pacific showing Prince Rupert Harbor and vicinity. Copies of this publication may be had for the asking by applying to J. Quinlan, Bonaventure Depot, Montreal, P. Q. Men who wish to be well dressed are finding out the merits of our clothing. YOUR DANGER BEGINS WHEN YOUR BACK ACHES.

It is the First and Sure Sign of Kidney Disease.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Doan's Kidney Pills cure the aching back by curing the aching kidneys beneath—for it is really the kidneys aching and not the back. They set directly on the kidneys and make them strong and healthy, thereby causing pure blood to circulate throughout the whole system. Mrs. Frank Poole, Woodside, N.B., writes: "I was a great sufferer with backache for over a year, and could get nothing to relieve me until I took two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and now I do not feel any pain whatever, and can sit and sleep well; something I could not do before."

MISCELLANEOUS

To keep on good terms with some neighbors you have to be deaf as a post and blind as a bat and stand for all the glibly jokes that they spring. That grand old economist, Sir Richard, is making his influence felt to good advantage at Ottawa these days. It is well.

Minard's Liniment used by Physicians.

A man's wife never thinks his illness is serious until he quits using language that wouldn't look well in print.

Sprained Arm. Mary Ovington, Jasper, Ont., writes: "My mother had a badly sprained arm. Nothing we used did her any good. Then father got Hayward's Yellow Oil and it cured mother's arm in a few days." Price 25c.

"I had half the young men in town for rivals when I was doing a courtship stunt," said the sad-eyed passenger.

"And did you land the prize?" queried the hardware drummer.

"Well I never looked at it but that night," he of the sad eyes, "in that I married the girl."

Minard's Liniment cures Distemper.

There never was any benzoin of soda in the canned things they used to put up when you were back on the farm. But, then, for that matter, it would never keep either unless mother hid it somewhere so the children couldn't find it.

Muscular Rheumatism. Mr. H. Wilkinson, Stratford, Ont., says: "It affords me much pleasure to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic Pills. Price a box 50c."

There is nothing harsh about Lax-Liver Pills. They cure Constipation, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, and Bilious Spells without griping, purging or sickening. Price 25c.

BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is generally the result of a cold caused by exposure to wet and inclement weather, and is a very dangerous inflammatory affection of the bronchial tubes. The symptoms are: cough, shortness of breath, and a secretion of thick phlegm, at first white, but later of a greenish or yellowish color. Neglected Bronchitis is one of the most general causes of Consumption.

Cure it at once by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Mrs. D. D. Miller, Allandale, Ont., writes: "My husband got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup from my little girl who had Bronchitis. She was so badly you could hear her from one room to the other, but it was not long until we could see the effect your medicine had on her. That was last winter when we lived in Toronto."

"She had a bad cold this winter, but instead of getting another bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I tried a home-made receipt which I got from a neighbor, but found that her cold lasted about twice as long. My husband highly praises 'Dr. Wood's' and says he will do that 'bottle' of it is always kept in the house."

The price of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 50 cents per bottle. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, so, to be sure and accept none of the many substitutes of the original "Norway Pine Syrup."
