Brigades Drilling.

Last evening the C. L. B., C. C. C., and Mtd. Highlanders under their various officers assembled on the Parade Ground and went through the various drills and had a march past.
The lads were fully accounted and were put through the exercises by an officer from H. M. S. Brilliant. The pipers of the Highlanders were present and played the battalion to the armoury after all was over. A concourse of citizens watched proceedings.

FIRST AID.—Dr. Murphy delivered the last lecture of the "First Aid" series to the ladies' class at the British Hall last night. They will be examined by Dr. Chaplin to-morrow.

Harbor Grace Notes.

A severe electrical storm passed over this town on Saturday night.
The lightning was very vivid and the thunder heavy. The electric light company wisely shut off the lights while the storm was in progress, and some of our citizens who, like the foolish virgins, found themselves without oil, were much inconvenienced. At 1 a.m. Sunday, the storm having passed off, the welcome electric light was again given us.

The domestic in the home of Mr.
Dugald Munn—Miss Dora Noseworthy —has been stricken with diphtheria and the house is placarded. This is the first case of this dread disease known to be here for some time, and we hope it will be the only one for a long time to come.

A couple of cases of scarlet fever developed here recently, but with the skilful care of our medical men and the precautionary placarding by the authorities, there is little chance of the disease spreading.

Mr. A. E. Lawson, representing the Laymen's Missionary Movement, addressed the congregation of St. Andrew's yesterday evening on the needs of assisting with our money the men who are actually doing the work of bringing the "word" to the heathen. The remarks of Mr. Lawson were very much enjoyed by the congregation.

Master Frank Munn, son of Mr.
John G. Munn, fell over the wharf on Saturday. He was rescued by a young man named W. Walsh, and is now pleased to know, nothing the worse for his dip.

Codfish and station were again plentiful in the market this morning.
The salmon sold for 10 cents per lb.

Miss Lillian Spracklin and her guest, Mrs. Emmet, of Halifax, arrived by this afternoon's train on a visit to the former's father, Sergeant Spracklin. Miss Spracklin's many friends will wish them both a pleasant holiday.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its Forms can be Cured.
It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and head ache, I feel too tired to do anything I have no heart to exert myself and times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden." Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles it can be obtained at

M. G. LAST REPLY.
St. John's, June 19th, 1911.
Dear Sir,—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 17th, which has been duly considered by our Governing Committee and to which I am directed to reply.
We beg to say that we have never made any contention whatever respecting the other three brigades parading in response to His Excellency's invitation, and have no reason or desire whatever to do so.
We regret exceedingly that His Excellency should have offered a solution of the so-called difficulty which was known to be absolutely unacceptable to the M. G. B. and thus have placed us in the embarrassing position of being compelled respectfully to decline to accept His Excellency's suggestion and to find ourselves very much against our natural wishes and desires thereby excluded from the public parade.
We beg further to respectfully submit that in a former letter we think we showed conclusively the lack of any analogy between the Army and the local Brigades. In any case we beg to submit with all deference and respect to His Excellency that we should not be expected to acquiesce in any arrangement which concedes to the C. L. B. precedence as of right, which is equivalent to priority.
We shall exceedingly regret with His Excellency the absence of the M. G. B. from the public parade, but the proposed arrangement leaves us no alternative. Nevertheless we beg to assure His Excellency that the Coronation of our Gracious King will be celebrated as heartily and loyally by the M. G. B. as by any of His Majesty's myriads of subjects, and that we shall earnestly pray for a long, happy, glorious and peaceful reign for our beloved Sovereign.
I have the honour to be,
Your obedient servant,
CHAS. H. FITZHERBERT,
Major M. G. B.
Private Secretary.

Came Away No Better and Then Two Boxes of Zam-Buk Worked Complete Cure.
Mr. Fred. Mason, the well-known upholsterer and mattress manufacturer of St. Andrew's, N.B., says:— "I had eczema on my knee, which caused me terrible pain and inconvenience. The sore parts would itch and burn and tingle, and then when rubbed or scratched, would become very painful. I tried various remedies but got no better, so I decided to go to Montreal and take special treatment. I received treatment at the Montreal General Hospital for thirteen weeks, but at the end of that time I was not cured, and almost gave in. A friend advised me to give Zam-Buk a trial, and although I had little hope of it doing me good, I took the advice. Almost as soon as I applied Zam-Buk stopped the itching and the irritation. I persevered with the balm, and it was soon evident that it would do me good. Each day the pain was reduced, the sore spots began to heal, and by the time I had used a few boxes of Zam-Buk I was cured."

For eczema, blood-poisoning, piles, ulcers, sores, abscesses, varicose ulcers, bad leg, sore feet, blisters, insect stings, poisoned wounds, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin injuries and diseases, Zam-Buk is without equal. Zam-Buk Soap should also be used for washing all wounds, eczemaous patches and sores. All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box and Zam-Buk Soap at 25c. per tablet, or from Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld.

Mayor Ellis Welcomed.

Last evening at 7.30 the officers of the T. A. & B. and Juvenile T. A. Society met at the Hall and proceeded to the residence of Mayor V. J. Ellis, President of the T. A. & B. Society, and gave him a cordial welcome home.
They were accompanied by the bands of the senior Society and the Juvenile body, and fully 300 members of either congregated opposite Mr. Ellis's house on New Gower Street, with a fine concourse of citizens. A fine display of fireworks, under the supervision of Mr. Hanley, was given, and on arrival there the bands appropriately played the air "You're Welcome Home Again," and hearty cheers were given for President Ellis. The officers entered Mr. Ellis's domicile when V.
P. L. J. Griffin, in a fluent speech, welcomed the President back on behalf of the Society and congratulated him on his recovery from his recent illness. The President of the Juvenile Society did the same, after which refreshments were served to the officers, and the bands serenaded Mr.
Ellis. All then returned to the hall, and on the route back the pyrotech-

Death of Mrs. O'Keefe.

There passed away at 3 o'clock this morning an estimable old lady, Mrs.
Anne O'Keefe, at the residence of her son, Mr. A. H. O'Keefe, William St.
Deceased, who was in her 84th year, was born in the County of Kilkenny and came to this country in 1843, three years after the great famine.
O'Keefe had been ailing the past seven months and suffered from weakness of the heart. She leaves one son, Mr. A. H. O'Keefe, to whom we extend our sympathy in his bereavement. The funeral will take place Thursday next.

ROUND TRIP PASSENGERS.—A large number of round trip passengers left Montreal, Saturday last, by the S. S. Rosalind for St. John's. More will leave by the Bonavista the end of the week.

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

The lover of a bygone age worked up a fine poetic rage when trying to propose: for one glance from his lady's eyes he'd tear the planets from the skies, or melt the arctic snows. Upon his knees he OLD AND NEW made his vows; he'd bring her India's sacred cows, or LOVERS. he'd drain the ocean for its fish, and bring the same on ice. And if the maiden wouldn't wed, she'd shortly see him lying dead, his bosom torn apart; and if she looked into the rent, he said, he'd bet a Lincoln cent, she'd find a broken heart. And now we hear the lover say to star-eyed maiden: "By the way, with me you've made a hit; I'm kind of looking for a frau, and if you want a husband now, it seems to me you're it." The damsel isn't stricken dumb; she merely ceases chewing gum, and gives a little nod, and looks into her lover's eyes, and heaves a little smile and sighs: "How hefty is your wad?" I like the old time lover best—the man who raves and beats his breast and swears that he'll expire if she won't have him for her hub, and let him help to sweep and scrub, and light the kitchen fire.
